Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering the revitalizing mission at the heart of our Christian faith - to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

Next Sunday is Priesthood Sunday

Priesthood Sunday, October 28, is a special day set aside to honor our parish priests and to affirm their role of the priesthood in the life of the Church. Priesthood Sunday specifically honors priests who alone give us the Mass, the Eucharist and other sacraments.

Next Saturday, October 27, after the 4:30 pm Mass, St. Agnes and St. Felix parishes will honor Fr. Gregory Parrott and retired priests living in our area. Please make a special effort to attend and thank them for serving our community.

The event will be held at the St. Felix Auditorium, where Root Beer floats and appetizers will be served. There will be a gift basket for your cards and spiritual bouquets. Spiritual bouquets are prayers and sacrifices for our priests. We will have spiritual bouquet forms available for parishioners to fill out.

This event is sponsored by St. Felix Church Ladies, the Foresters, and Wabasha County Serra Club.

Cup of Salvation: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The sons of Zebedee hardly know what they're asking in today's Gospel. They are thinking in terms of how the Gentiles rule, of royal privileges and honors.

But the road to Christ's kingdom is by way of His cross. To share in His glory, we must be willing to drink the cup that He drinks.

The cup is an Old Testament image for God's judgment. The wicked would be made to drink this cup in punishment for their sins (see Psalm 75:9; Jeremiah 25:15, 28; Isaiah 51:17). But Jesus has come to drink this cup on behalf of all humanity. He has come to be baptized—which means plunged or immersed—into the sufferings we all deserve for our sins (compare Luke 12:50).

In this He will fulfill the task of Isaiah's suffering servant, whom we read about in today's First Reading.

Like Isaiah's servant, the Son of Man will give His life as an offering for sin, as once Israel's priests offered sacrifices for the sins of the people (see Leviticus 5:17-19).

Jesus is the heavenly high priest of all humanity, as we hear in today's Epistle. Israel's high priests offered the blood of goats and calves in the temple sanctuary. But Jesus entered the heavenly sanctuary with His own blood (see Hebrews 9:12).

And by bearing our guilt and offering His life to do the will of God, Jesus ransomed "the many"—paying the price to redeem humanity from spiritual slavery to sin and death.

He has delivered us from death, as we rejoice in today's Psalm.

We need to hold fast to our confession of faith, as today's Epistle exhorts us. We must look upon our trials and sufferings as our portion of the cup He promised to those who believe in Him (see Colossians 1:24). We must remember that we have been baptized into His passion and death (see Romans 6:3).

In confidence, let us approach the altar today, the throne of grace, at which we drink the cup of His saving blood (see Mark 14:23-24)

ATTENTION COUPLES, YOUNG AND MORE MATURE

In October, St Felix and St Agnes parishes will form couples groups with the intent to increase fellowship, enrich marriages and family life, and grow in our Catholic faith. We hope to begin meeting in November. The Pope described marriage as "a project to be worked on together" and a "process of growth" (Amoris Laetitia, no. 218, 221). A group would consist of three to four couples. Groups would meet at homes once a month for social time, a shared meal, a short video on faith, and group discussion. The meeting would be from 6:00 to 9:00 pm. To sign up call the office with your names or contact Deacon John and Nancy Hust at 651-564-0051 or 651-564-1218. We plan to make phone calls to invite participation, so please be open to think about this opportunity.
