Sunday 7:30 am St. Agnes

Contact Father directly if an appointment or a general (comprehensive, lifetime) confession is desired.

INFANT BAPTISM

Call the parish office to make arrangements to have your child baptized as soon as possible! A Baptism preparation class is given to first-time parents.

MATRIMONY

Recently engaged? Contact the Pastor before setting up any arrangements to begin preparing for this holy union! Preparation is required for all marriages and must begin at least six months beforehand.

RCIA

Everyone is invited to the fullness of communion with Christ in the Catholic Church! Call the parish office to inquire about becoming Catholic.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK

If you or a family member are sick, hospitalized or homebound and wish to receive Holy Communion, contact the parish office. Those who are seriously ill or anticipating surgery should make arrangements to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as soon as possible.

The Notes

St. Agnes Church Dinner

TODAY, Sunday, October 28

11:00 am - 2:00 pm

Turkey dinner, served family-style, with all the trimmings, including rutabagas and pie! Carry-outs are available. Activities include raffles, theme baskets, country store/bake sale, and specialty auction. Specialty auction begins at 1:30 pm.

Solemnity of All Saints

Thursday, November 1

Throughout the year, the Church celebrates one by one the feasts of the saints. On this day, however, she joins them all in one great festival. In addition to those whose names the Church knows in the list of canonized saints, she also recalls in a magnificent vision all the others “of all nations and tribes standing before the throne and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands, proclaiming Him who redeemed them in His Blood” (Revelations 7:9-10).

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

Friday, November 2

Immediately following the celebration of all the saints in heaven, the Church turns her gaze to those who are yet making their pilgrim way to the halls of the heavenly kingdom. Especially on this day, but on all days in November, the Church prays for the holy souls in purgatory. The Mass being the greatest of those prayers, we offer the Holy Sacrifice for them; we visit their graves in our cemeteries, remembering them and praying for their eternal rest.

May eternal rest and perpetual light shine upon Anthony Sharpe, who passed away on Wednesday, October 17, and whose funeral was on Tuesday, October 23, at St. Agnes.

*Through the mercy of God,
may he rest in peace.*

Faith Formation

Margaret Ogram, Faith Formation Coordinator

Cinnamon Roll Breakfast

After the Mass in Wabasha with youth volunteers on Sunday, November 4, join us in the St. Felix Auditorium for rolls and coffee. The school book fair will be open and available, as well.

Vocations Awareness Night

Coming up on Wednesday, November 7, at 7:00 pm we will have Vocations Awareness Night. Seminarians and the Religious Sisters of Mercy will share with us their vocation stories and what they do in their daily lives. We hope you can join us!

Faith Formation Meal

Everyone is invited to join us for our Faith Formation meals on Wednesday nights at 6:15 in the St. Felix Auditorium. Suggested donation is $2 per person.

St. Felix Catholic School

Eric Sonnek, Principal

The school has been very busy with students learning, teachers and staff planning and making great lessons for the kids. Here are some big events that are coming up for the school:

1) If you are interested in ordering some St. Felix Catholic School clothing, we have order forms in the school office. Please stop by to pick up an order form. The deadline to order is November 5.

2) Our Annual Bookfair is coming up. It will be held in the school gym on the following days:

|------------|--|
| November 4 | 10:00 am to noon |
| November 5 | 10:00 am to 3:30 pm |
| November 6 | 10:00 am to 3:30 pm |
| November 7 | 10:00 am to 3:30 pm |
| November 8 | 10:00 am to 3:30 pm, and 6:30 to 7:30 pm, with ice cream social |

3) Mark your calendars for the St. Felix Catholic School Christmas Play which will be on December 14 at 1 pm and 7 pm. Students are starting to practice.

Thank you for all your prayers and support.

Vocations Holy Hour

On Thursday, after the All Saints Day Mass, the Serra Club of Wabasha County invites everyone to pray with them for vocations at a Eucharistic Holy Hour at St. Felix Church.

Every Life: Cherished, Chosen and Sent

The essence of our identity is that we are created in God's image and likeness and loved by Him. Nothing can diminish the priceless worth of any human life. Every person is cherished.

God creates every person for eternal union with Himself and continually invites us to embrace a loving relationship with Him. Every person is chosen.

Our Lady of Guadalupe's message to St. Juan Diego was "You who are my messenger, in you I place my trust." We are called to be messengers of God's love, treating one another as cherished and chosen by Him. In doing so, we help build a culture that respects all human life. Every person is sent.

Like St. Juan Diego, let us embrace our daily mission to help others encounter God's transforming, life-giving love.

Seeing the Son of David: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel turns on an irony—it is a blind man, Bartimaeus, who becomes the first besides the apostles to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. And His healing is the last miracle Jesus performs before entering the holy city of Jerusalem for His last week on earth.

The scene on the road to Jerusalem evokes the joyful procession prophesied by Jeremiah in today's First Reading. In Jesus this prophecy is fulfilled. God, through the Messiah, is delivering His people from exile, bringing them back from the ends of the earth, with the blind and lame in their midst.

Jesus, as Bartimaeus proclaims, is the long-awaited Son promised to David (see 2 Samuel 7:12–16; Isaiah 11:9; Jeremiah 23:5). Upon His triumphal arrival in Jerusalem, all will see that the everlasting kingdom of David has come (see Mark 11:9–10).

As we hear in today's Epistle, the Son of David was expected to be the Son of God (see Psalm 2:7). He was to be a priest-king like Melchizedek (see Psalm 110:4), who offered bread and wine to God Most High at the dawn of salvation history (see Genesis 14:18–20).

Bartimaeus is a symbol of his people, the captive Zion which we sing of in today's Psalm. His God has done great things for him. All his life has been sown in tears and weeping. Now, he reaps a new life.

Bartimaeus, too, should be a sign for us. How often Christ passes us by—in the person of the poor, in the distressing guise of a troublesome family member or burdensome associate (see Matthew 25:31–46)—and yet we don't see Him.

Christ still calls to us through His Church, as Jesus sent His apostles to call Bartimaeus. Yet how often are we found to be listening instead to the voices of the crowd, not hearing the words of His Church.

Today He asks us what He asks Bartimaeus, “What do you want me to do for you?” Rejoicing, let us ask the same thing of Him—what can we do for all that He has done for us?

"Freely you have received, freely give." Matthew 10:8
