Grandparents' Day

I would like to Thank these people for their help in the kitchen on Grandparents' Day:

Carol Schmit, Rita Pfeilsticker, Melissa Fitzgerald, Kris Kruse, Pat Kolb, Wendy Stumpf and Bill Schjolberg.

Respect Life

Did You Know? The Planned Parenthood (PP) facility in Rochester is again killing pre-born babies by means of the abortion pill. This is done through a "webcam" system in which the abortionist from St. Paul PP communicates through video with the abortion client, where she takes the deadly drug. She takes the first drug at PP and the second drug at home 6 to 48 hours later. Currently, abortion appointments are Monday mornings from 9:00 to 10:30 am. There's still a chance for the woman to save her baby's life after taking the first drug, by contacting (877) 558-0333. Sidewalk Counselors and Prayer Supporters are needed in Rochester to Save Lives! If you live in the Rochester area, please consider spending time at this abortion center in prayer or sidewalk counseling. You could save a life! Literature and sidewalk counseling training is provided. Contact Debra Braun at (651) 797-6364 or debra.braun@plam.org

Lunch Room Helpers

Thank you to all who helped Mary Pfeilsticker in the kitchen while Ms. Tina was out the past few weeks, know that your help was very much appreciated. Fire of Love: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Third Sunday of Easter

There are two places in Scripture where the curious detail of a "charcoal fire" is mentioned. One is in today's Gospel, where the Apostles return from fishing to find bread and fish warming on the fire.

The other is in the scene in the High Priest's courtyard on Holy Thursday, where Peter and some guards and slaves warm themselves while Jesus is being interrogated inside (see John 18:18).

At the first fire, Peter denied knowing Jesus three times, as Jesus had predicted (see John 13:38; 18:15–18, 25–27).

Today's charcoal fire becomes the scene of Peter's repentance, as three times Jesus asks him to make a profession of love. Jesus' thrice repeated command, "feed My sheep," shows that Peter is being appointed as the shepherd of the Lord's entire flock, the head of His Church (see also Luke 22:32).

Jesus' question, "Do you love me more than these?" is a pointed reminder of Peter's pledge to lay down his life for Jesus, even if the other Apostles might weaken

(see John 13:37; Matthew 26:33; Luke 22:33).

Jesus then explains just what Peter's love and leadership will require, foretelling Peter's death by crucifixion ("you will stretch out your hands").

Before His own death, Jesus had warned the Apostles that they would be hated as He was hated, that they would suffer as He suffered (see Matthew 10:16–19, 22; John 15:18–20; 16:2).

We see the beginnings of that persecution in today's First Reading. Flogged as Jesus was, the Apostles nonetheless leave "rejoicing that they have been found worthy to suffer."

Their joy is based on their faith that God will change their "mourning into dancing," as we sing in today's Psalm. By their sufferings, they know, they will be counted worthy to stand in heaven before "the Lamb that was slain," a scene glimpsed in today's Second Reading (see also Revelation 6:9–11).

“Freely you have received, freely give.” Matthew 10:8

MINISTRY DAYS 2019

A Church on Fire ~ A Church in Mission
Friday, June 7 - Saturday, June 8
St. John the Evangelist Co-Cathedral
Rochester, MN

This year’s Ministry Days will be joined with the solemn Pentecost Vigil celebration. Pope Francis tells us: “Let us ask the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us a fervent longing to be saints for the greater glory of God, and let us encourage one another in this effort.”

Catholic Charities Annual Mother’s Day Appeal
May 11 - 12, 2019

“At the end of life we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we have made, or how many great things we have done. We will be judged by, I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat, I was naked and you clothed me. I was homeless, and you took me in.”
~ Mother Teresa

Next weekend you will have the opportunity to bring the compassion of Jesus to families in crisis, vulnerable seniors and adults, and children in need. Your support of Catholic Charities affirms your belief that all lives have value, especially the lives of the poor. God bless you for your kind consideration of those we serve.
