New Faith Formation Coordinator

I'm pleased to announce we have hired a new coordinator for our faith formation program—Felicity Taylor. She is a woman of deep faith and has already given me a barrage of new ideas to help improve our ministry for our young people here. Read her bio below. She will be part-time. She won't be in the office M-F, but she will be very accessible by email or phone, and she will take leadership of the program and other activities enthusiastically. Welcome Felicity!

Missionary Cooperative

This weekend is our annual visit from a missionary to make an appeal. Sr. Sylvia Borgmeier, SSND, from Good Counsel in Mankato, is here to speak about her being a missionary in Kenya, Ghana, The Gambia and Nigeria for 29 years. Please support these efforts!

Faith Formation

Felicity Taylor, Coordinator

Hello!

My name is Felicity Taylor. I feel very blessed to have this opportunity to serve as Faith Formation Coordinator. Even though it seems like my husband, our two children and I have always lived in Plainview, we are originally from Eau Claire, WI.

Becoming a catechist for our hometown parish helped me to discover my love for teaching. Our amazing Faith Formation Coordinator there took me under her wing and taught me everything I know today, from planning programs for the youth, youth retreats, taking girls on Nun Runs, leading families on pilgrimages, and helping families live our Catholic faith in everyday life.

I have a great love for the lives of the Saints and have shared their stories by giving tours at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in LaCrosse, as well as giving talks at parishes in the Twin Cities. I'm looking forward to meeting all of you and putting into practice all that has been taught to me. By God's grace, I pray that together we can bring our families closer to the Holy Family.

Upcoming Meeting

On Wednesday, July 31, from 6:30 - 7:30 pm at the school, I will be holding a meeting for catechists, potential catechists, or anyone who wants to help improve our Faith Formation program. During this meeting we will discuss ideas and plans for the 2019-2020 year. Please bring your thoughts and ideas for making this Faith Formation year a fruitful and blessed one.

We are in need of catechists and volunteers! Please prayerfully consider joining our Faith Formation program and helping our parish families grow closer to our Lord. If interested, please contact me or join us on July 31.

What We Must Do: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are to love God and our neighbor with all the strength of our being, as the scholar of the Law answers Jesus in this week's Gospel.

This command is nothing remote or mysterious—it's already written in our hearts, in the book of Sacred Scripture. "You have only to carry it out," Moses says in this week's First Reading.

Jesus tells His interrogator the same thing: "Do this and you will live."

The scholar, however, wants to know where he can draw the line. That's the motive behind his question: "Who is my neighbor?"

In his compassion, the Samaritan in Jesus' parable reveals the boundless mercy of God—who came down to us when we were fallen in sin, close to dead, unable to pick ourselves up.

Jesus is "the image of the invisible God," this week's Epistle tells us. In Him, the love of God has come very near to us. By the "blood of His Cross"—by bearing His neighbors' sufferings in His own body, being Himself stripped and beaten and left for dead—He saved us from bonds of sin, reconciled us to God and to one another.

Like the Samaritan, He pays the price for us, heals the wounds of sin, pours out on us the oil and wine of the sacraments, entrusts us to the care of His Church, until He comes back for us.

Because His love has known no limits, ours cannot either. We are to love as we have been loved, to do for others what He has done for us—joining all things together in His Body, the Church.

We are to love like the singer of this week's Psalm—like those whose prayers have been answered, like those whose lives have been saved, who have known the time of His favor, have seen God in His great mercy turn toward us.

This is the love that leads to eternal life, the love Jesus commands today of each of us—"Go and do likewise."

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112
