Diocesan Courier

The Courier will now be available in church instead of being mailed to your home. The Diocese is trying to cut costs, and delivering the Courier to the churches instead of homes is one of their ways of doing this. If you would still like to receive the Courier at your home, please send your name, address and reader ID (number directly above your name on the mailing label) to: Diocese of Winona-Rochester, The Courier, 55 W Sanborn St. Winona, MN 55987

FALL FESTIVAL - SAVE THE DATE

The 2019 Fall Festival is September 15th. Volunteers are welcome and needed. This is a great way to get involved with the parish and school. FALL INTO CASH tickets are available! These tickets are $100 per ticket for a chance to win $10,000! Each ticket is eligible for every drawing and only 275 tickets are sold. Tickets are available at the parish office and through a Fall Festival committee member.

All registered parishioners have an envelope of raffle tickets to sell. Please pick up your tickets in the back of church after Saturday/Sunday Mass. Please make every effort to sell all the tickets in your envelope. Please do not throw away any unwanted raffle tickets, as we must account for each ticket printed. You can drop them off at the school or parish office, or bring them on the day of the festival.

As we prepare for the Fall Festival, we ask you to think about key ways to contribute to this very important fundraiser for our youth. We are looking for leaders in the following events: Big $ Tickets, Carry Outs, Dishwashers, Football Toss, Pies, Line Servers, and Bakers Cart and Grocery Cart.

Please contact a committee member to volunteer.

The Fool's Vanity: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Trust in God—as the Rock of our salvation, as the Lord who made us His chosen people, as our shepherd and guide. This should be the mark of our following of Jesus.

Like the Israelites we recall in this week's Psalm, we have made an exodus, passing through the waters of Baptism, freeing us from our bondage to sin. We too are on a pilgrimage to a promised homeland, the Lord in our midst, feeding us heavenly bread, giving us living waters to drink (see 1 Corinthians 10:1–4).

We must take care to guard against the folly that befell the Israelites, that led them to quarrel and test God's goodness at Meribah and Massah.

We can harden our hearts in ways more subtle but no less ruinous. We can put our trust in possessions, squabble over earthly inheritances, kid ourselves that what we have we deserve, store up treasures and think they'll afford us security and rest.

All this is “vanity of vanities,” a false and deadly way of living, as this week's First Reading tells us.

This is the greed that Jesus warns against in this week's Gospel. The rich man's anxiety and toil expose his lack of faith in God's care and provision. That's why Paul calls greed “idolatry” in the Epistle this week. Mistaking having for being, possession for existence, we forget that God is the giver of all that we have. We exalt the things we can make or buy over our Maker (see Romans 1:25).

Jesus calls the rich man a “fool”—a word used in the Old Testament for someone who rebels against God or has forgotten Him (see Psalm 14:1).

We should treasure most the new life we have been given in Christ and seek what is above, the promised inheritance of heaven. We have to see all things in the light of eternity, mindful that He who gives us the breath of life could at any moment—this night even—demand it back from us.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112
