From the Office

There will be a second collection next weekend for Catholic Home Mission and Black and Native American. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

With that said, it was brought to my attention last weekend at Mass, that I had forgotten a money bag for the second collection for that week. So we will be taking up a second collection this weekend for our Charity Fund, that I missed last weekend. Thank you so much for understanding, and thank you for your generosity!

God Bless,

Angie Danckwart

St. Felix Catholic School Eric Sonnek, Principal

As we begin the new school year tomorrow, we turn to God in prayer:

Loving God, we come to you at this new beginning of the school year.
We have been many places during the summer and our journey has brought us back to this place and to this time together.
We know that this is not by accident, but by your intimate design for each of us.
As we turn towards you at the beginning of this year as a school community, we begin by saying thank you—thank you for this call to serve in the St. Felix community.
Thank you for where we are on our road and for the road ahead.
Be with us as we begin the year.
Steady our hearts and our minds to be open to what is being constantly revealed through your loving presence.
Give us joy-filled hearts,
a warm and friendly attitude that is open to the movement of your spirit and to others.
Help us to be open and ready to respond to what is needed by our students, our parents, our alumni, and the city and the St. Felix family.
In you, we place our trust,
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Consuming Fire: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our God is a consuming fire, the Scriptures tell us (see Hebrews 12:29; Deuteronomy 4:24). And in this week's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of fire to describe the demands of discipleship.

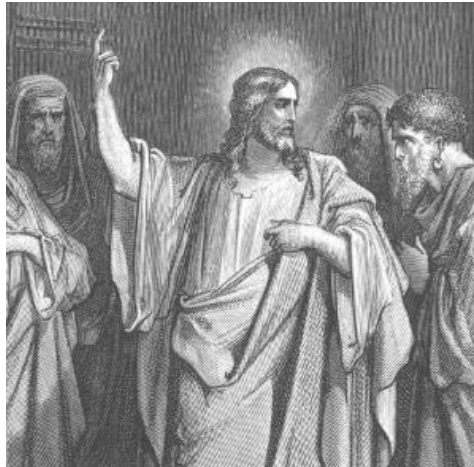

The fire He has come to cast on the earth is the fire that He wants to blaze in each of our hearts. He made us from the dust of the earth (see Genesis 2:7) and filled us with the fire of the Holy Spirit in Baptism (see Luke 3:16).

We were baptized into His death (see Romans 6:3). This is the baptism our Lord speaks of in the Gospel this week. The baptism with which He must be baptized is His passion and death, by which He accomplished our redemption and sent forth the fire of the Spirit on the earth (see Acts 2:3).

The fire has been set, but it is not yet blazing. We are called to enter deeper into the consuming love of God. We must examine our consciences and our actions, submitting ourselves to the revealing fire of God's Word (see 1 Corinthians 3:13).

In our struggle against sin, we have not yet resisted to the point of shedding our own blood, Paul tells us in this week's Epistle. We have not undergone the suffering that Jeremiah suffers in the First Reading this week.

But this is what true discipleship requires. To be a disciple is to be inflamed with the love of the God. It is to have an unquenchable desire for holiness and zeal for the salvation of our brothers and sisters.

Being His disciple does not bring peace in the false way that the world proclaims peace (see Jeremiah 8:11). It means division and hardship. It may bring us to conflict with our own flesh and blood.

But Christ is our peace (see Ephesians 2:14). By His Cross He has lifted us up from the mire of sin and death—as He will rescue the prophet Jeremiah (see Jeremiah 38:10).

And as we sing in the Psalm this week, we trust in our deliverer.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112
