St. Felix Catholic School Eric Sonnek, Principal

As the school year begins, I am busy working with our staff, students and parents on understanding the importance of St. Felix and making sure we all understand the purpose and reason for St. Felix Catholic School. This past week at our conference, our staff talked about our philosophy and mission of St. Felix. In our discussion, the following question was indirectly talked about.

What is St. Felix Catholic School's philosophy?

Our handbook has 5 key points to our philosophy. I want to start with the first one:

Parents, staff and the church community promote lifelong learning through a variety of experiences, which will enhance the spiritual, academic, social and moral growth of each child. We are your partners in educating your child.

In our resource from the conference "Living as Missionary Disciples" by USCCB, it talks about encountering Jesus within the family. It states that "it is within the family that we first learn who God is and how to prayerfully seek his will for us." St. Felix works as a partner in continuing to help our students learn who God is and how to seek his will. We encourage and show our students how to pray. When the students are engaged and understand that they need to turn to God in prayer to help them through tough times and/or good times, they are able to accomplish great things. We have to make sure that we encourage our students and families to pray and turn to God, so they can face the road ahead.

To Go up Higher: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We come to the wedding banquet of heaven by way of humility and charity. This is the fatherly instruction we hear in today's First Reading, and the message of today's Gospel.

Jesus is not talking simply about good table manners. He is revealing the way of the kingdom, in which the one who would be greatest would be the servant of all (see Luke 22:24-27).

This is the way, too, that the Father has shown us down through the ages—filling the hungry, sending the rich away empty, lifting up the lowly, pulling down the proud (see Luke 1:52-53).

We again call to mind the Exodus in today's Psalm—how in His goodness the Lord led the Israelites from imprisonment to prosperity, rained down bread from heaven, made them His inheritance, becoming a "Father of orphans."

We now have also gained a share of His inheritance. We are to live humbly, knowing we are not worthy to receive from His table (see Luke 6:7; 15:21). We are to give alms, remembering we were ransomed from sin by the price of His blood (see 1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

The Lord promises that if we are humble we will be exalted and find favor with God; that if we are kind to those who can never repay us, we will atone for sins and find blessing in the resurrection of the righteous.

We anticipate the fulfillment of those promises in every Eucharist, today's Epistle tells us. In the Mass, we enter the festal gathering of the angels and the firstborn children of God. It is the liturgy of the heavenly Jerusalem in which Jesus is the high priest, the King who calls us to come up higher (see Proverbs 25:6-7).

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112

Lectio Series: The Gospel of Mark-Faith not Fear

Please join this bible study and discussion on the Gospel of Mark. Is the Gospel of Mark only a “condensed” version of the life of Christ? Immerse yourself in this action-packed Gospel that offers Saint Peter’s account of Christ’s life and teaching.

Each session includes a 30 minute video with small group sharing. It will be offered on Tuesday from 1:00-2:30 pm and Thursday 3:00-4:30 pm at the Hust home (612 14th St. Wabasha). It will start on September 10th and 12th. Contact Deacon John (651) 564-0551 or Nancy Hust (651) 764-1218 to register and indicate which day preference.
