The Notes

Today is Sanctity of Human Life Sunday. Since 1984, when President Ronald Reagan proclaimed the first National Sanctity of Human Life Day, churches around the country have gathered on the third Sunday of January to celebrate God's gift of life to commemorate the many lives lost to abortion and commit themselves to protecting life at every stage.

Join thousands of Minnesotans at this inspiring event in front of the Capitol Building in St. Paul. A Prayer Service for Life will take place at 10:30 am at the Cathedral of St. Paul prior to the march. For more info visit www.MCCL.org or you may call 612-825-6831.

St. Felix Catholic School Eric Sonnek, Principal

So far, this has been a year of great learning and growth. This past summer and fall we were evaluating and reviewing the work we had been doing to educate our students through the MNSAA accreditation process. A team of five educators came and reviewed our work and found that we have an excellent program with great potential for growth and providing a great education for our students.

We saw growth when we reached our goal of $25,000 and received a matching $25,000 which in turn is going right back to the teachers, students, and families. Our teachers benefited by receiving money to attend professional development classes to study new ways to educate students. Our students benefit by getting classroom upgrades like flexible seating to help create a more relaxed setting to learn along with new curriculum material to better enhance their learning. Our families will be benefiting this next school year when we put into place tuition incentive programs for our families. More information on those incentives will be coming out in a few weeks.

Our school also received a grant for $10,000 to add 42 Chromebooks (computers) for our students to use in the classroom. It will allow our students to use them for testing, individualized learning programs, and work on typing skills. Our Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (S.T.E.M.) program has received a donation of $10,000 to continue to improve, purchase materials, and possibly create a space for our students to be able to better their knowledge in S.T.E.M.

Another area of improvement for our community is our sound system in the gym. We were pleased to be able to improve the sound system and make it easier for our community to use the sound system.

St. Felix Catholic School is extremely blessed by the wonderful support of everyone around us so that we can continue to help our young people grow in faith and receive a top-notch education. Please know that anyone is welcome to visit the school and see for yourself the great things that are happening at St. Felix Catholic School. #stfelixstrong

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Perfect Offering: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus speaks through the prophet Isaiah in today's First Reading.

He tells us of the mission given to Him by the Father from the womb: "You are My servant," He said to Me." Servant and Son, our Lord was sent to lead a new exodus—to raise up the exiled tribes of Israel, to gather and restore them to God. More than that, He was to be a light to the nations, that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (see Acts 13:46–47).

Before the first exodus, a lamb was offered in sacrifice and its blood painted on the Israelites' door posts. The blood of the lamb identified their homes and the Lord "passed over" these in executing judgment on the Egyptians (see Exodus 12:1–23, 27).

In the new exodus, Jesus is the "Lamb of God," as John beholds Him in the Gospel today (see 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18–19). Our Lord sings of this in today's Psalm. He has come, He says, to offer His body to do the will of God (see Hebrews 10:3–13).

The sacrifices, oblations, holocausts, and sin offerings given after the first exodus had no power to take away sins (see Hebrews 10:4). They were meant not to save but to teach (see Galatians 3:24). In offering these sacrifices, the people were to learn self-sacrifice—that they were made for worship, to offer themselves freely to God and to delight in His will.

Only Jesus could make that perfect offering of Himself. And through His sacrifice, He has given us ears open to obedience, He has made it possible for us to hear the Father's call to holiness, as Paul says in today's Epistle.

He has made us children of God, baptized in the blood of the Lamb (see Revelation 7:14). And we are to join our sacrifice to His, to offer our bodies—our lives—as living sacrifices in the spiritual worship of the Mass (see Romans 12:1).

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112

Renew Faith. Extend Mercy. Inspire Hope.

Help us to reach our goal!

Consider attending a TEC Retreat.

What is TEC?

Pathways TEC is a three-day retreat weekend based on the Paschal Mystery: the death and resurrection of Jesus. Pathways TEC brings teens and adults together during the weekend to encounter Christ as the family of God.

What Happens On the Weekend?

A TEC weekend works to build spiritual growth through participation in group activities. Although some time is given for individual prayer and reflection, the emphasis throughout the weekend is on group participation through music, discussions, talks, prayer, Scripture, and Mass. Each day of the retreat has a central theme:

“Die Day”, the first day, centered on the death of Jesus Christ
 “Rise Day”, the second day, a celebration of Jesus’ resurrection
 “Go Day”, the third day, exploring the continuous call to spread the Good News
