2020-2021 K-6 Registration Tuition Information

The total cost to educate each child at St. Felix is approximately $12,000. This cost is met primarily by tuition, parish subsidy, and fundraising.

Tuition covers 15% of that cost. The remaining cost is covered by: St. Felix and St. Agnes parishioners contributing $242,000 per year, which provides over $4,000 per student. Fundraising efforts generate about $2,800 per student per year. Other income and donations contribute the remaining cost per student.

The early enrollment fee is $50.00 per family and is due at enrollment. After April 1, a $75 fee applies.

Tuition Rates Grades K-6, with multiple child discounts:

Affair of the Heart: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us in the Gospel this week that He has come not to abolish but to “fulfill” the Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets.

His Gospel reveals the deeper meaning and purpose of the Ten Commandments and the moral Law of the Old Testament. But His Gospel also transcends the Law. He demands a morality far greater than that accomplished by the most pious of Jews, the scribes and Pharisees.

Outward observance of the Law is not enough. It is not enough that we do not murder, commit adultery, divorce, or lie.

The law of the new covenant is a law that God writes on the heart (see Jer. 31:31–34). The heart is the seat of our motivations, the place from which our words and actions proceed (see Matthew 6:21; 15:18–20).

Jesus this week calls us to train our hearts, to master our passions and emotions. And Jesus demands the full obedience of our hearts (see Romans 6:17). He calls us to love God with all our hearts, and to do His will from the heart (see Matthew 22:37; Ephesians 6:6).

God never asks more of us than we are capable. That is the message of this week's First Reading. It is up to us to choose life over death, to choose the waters of eternal life over the fires of ungodliness and sin.

By His life, death, and resurrection, Jesus has shown us that it is possible to keep His commandments. In baptism, He has given us His Spirit that His Law might be fulfilled in us (Romans 8:4).

The wisdom of the Gospel surpasses all the wisdom of this age that is passing away, St. Paul tells us in the Epistle. The revelation of this wisdom fulfills God's plan from before all ages.

We trust in this wisdom, and live by His kingdom law. As we do in this week's Psalm, let us pray that we grow in being better able to live His Gospel, and to seek the Father with all our heart.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112

Theology Uncorked

This February, welcome Father Patrick Arens to Theology Uncorked for his talk, “Sacred Signs: A Window into God's Divine Life.” When we celebrate the Liturgy, what is actually taking place is revealed to us through what we see and experience. These “Sacred Signs” give us a clue as to what God accomplishes in the sacraments and what graces He offers to us. Father Arens will present on these Sacred Signs as they are found in the Church's liturgy and the celebrations of the sacraments, and offer thoughts on how we can better see into the window to God's divine life that they present to us. All this, cool drinks, and more at Theology Uncorked: Thursday, February 27, 7:00 pm at The Oaks Wine Bar, 75 W 3rd St, Winona.
