RECONCILIATION

Saturday 3:45 pm St. Felix

Sunday 7:30 am St. Agnes

Contact Father directly if an appointment or a general (comprehensive, lifetime) confession is desired.

INFANT BAPTISM

Call the parish office to make arrangements to have your child baptized as soon as possible! A Baptism preparation class is given to first-time parents.

MATRIMONY

Recently engaged? Contact the Pastor before setting up any arrangements to begin preparing for this holy union! Preparation is required for all marriages and must begin at least six months beforehand.

RCIA

Everyone is invited to the fullness of communion with Christ in the Catholic Church! Call the parish office to inquire about becoming Catholic.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK

If you or a family member are sick, hospitalized or homebound and wish to receive Holy Communion, contact the parish office. Those who are seriously ill or anticipating surgery should make arrangements to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as soon as possible.

The Notes

UGH COMPUTERS

Two weeks ago, my office computer did a Windows update and I lost most of my files. We sent the hard drive in to try and recover the files, but they were gone. The most important one and the one that makes me sad, is the file that contained all the Mass Intentions. If you asked for a specific date for your Mass intention, it is already on our calendar, so we have those. However, the Mass Intentions that were just dropped off might be missing. I am remaking the list based off my memory and the intentions we have scheduled in the past.

If you know you brought in Mass intentions without requesting specific dates, I would greatly appreciate it if you would please call me at (651) 565-3931 or email me at office@felixagnes.org. That will enable me to make sure we get all of those Mass intentions back on the list. Rest assured, we now have our files backing up automatically, so this never happens again!

Thank you for your patience, as I rebuild the foundation of my Secretary life.

God Bless, Angie

St. Felix Catholic School

Eric Sonnek, Principal

Enrollment is open for the 2020-2021 school year! We have new tuition assistance programs. Come see how learning comes to life at St. Felix Catholic School. Call us at 565-4446 for a personal tour, schedule a tour on Facebook, or come to our Open House on Monday, March 9 from 7:30 am to 7:00 pm.

2020-2021 K-6 Registration Tuition Information

The total cost to educate each child at St. Felix is approximately $12,000. This cost is met primarily by tuition, parish subsidy, and fundraising.

Tuition covers 15% of that cost. The remaining cost is covered by: St. Felix and St. Agnes parishioners contributing $242,000 per year, which provides over $4,000 per student. Fundraising efforts generate about $2,800 per student per year. Other income and donations contribute the remaining cost per student.

The early enrollment fee is $50.00 per family and is due at enrollment. After April 1, a $75 fee applies.

Tuition Rates Grades K-6, with multiple child discounts:

	Yearly	10-Month Plan
1 child	$2,750	$275
2 children	$4,400	$440
3 or more children	$6,050	$605

2020-2021 Incentives

Incentive	Discount
Child in PreS/PreK & in Grades 1-6	$500 off Preschool/PreK
New Transfer Family Grades 1-6	$1,000 off for Year 1, $500 off for Year 2
Current Family Referring a New Family	$1,000 off Tuition for 2020-21 Year

St. Felix will start offering a referral discount of $1,000. Each time a new family registers their K-6 child at St. Felix, and lists a current St. Felix family as the reason they enrolled at St. Felix, the referring family will receive $1,000 off of their 2020-2021 tuition credited in January 2021. The current family can only receive one referral discount. Spread the good news about your child's school!

Other tuition assistance programs are available to families with K-6 students.

Fasting Regulations

Everyone 14 years of age or older is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday.

Everyone 18 or older, and under 60 years of age, is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, only one full meal is allowed. Two more small meals are allowed, sufficient to maintain strength, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted. When one's health would be seriously affected, he is not bound to the obligation.

Those who fall outside the obligations are encouraged to also participate in these sacrificial practices to the extent they are able, as a united witness to the faith.

Holy as God: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are called to the holiness of God. That is the extraordinary claim made in both the First Reading and Gospel this Sunday.

Yet how is it possible that we can be perfect as our Father in heaven is perfect?

Jesus explains that we must be imitators of God as His beloved children (Ephesians 5:1-2).

As God does, we must love without limit—with a love that does not distinguish between friend and foe, overcoming evil with good (see Romans 12:21).

Jesus Himself, in His Passion and death, gave us the perfect example of the love that we are called to.

He offered no resistance to the evil—even though He could have commanded twelve legions of angels to fight alongside Him. He offered His face to be struck and spit upon. He allowed His garments to be stripped from Him. He marched as His enemies compelled Him to the Place of the Skull. On the cross He prayed for those who persecuted Him (see Matthew 26:53-54, 67; 27:28, 32; Luke 23:34).

In all this He showed Himself to be the perfect Son of God. By His grace, and through our imitation of Him, He promises that we too can become children of our heavenly Father.

God does not deal with us as we deserve, as we sing in this week's Psalm. He loves us with a Father's love. He saves us from ruin. He forgives our transgressions.

He loved us even when we had made ourselves His enemies through our sinfulness. While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (see Romans 5:8).

We have been bought with the price of the blood of God's only Son (see 1 Corinthians 6:20). We belong to Christ now, as St. Paul says in this week's Epistle. By our baptism, we have been made temples of His Holy Spirit.

And we have been saved to share in His holiness and perfection. So let us glorify Him by our lives lived in His service, loving as He loves.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112

Theology Uncorked

This February, welcome Father Patrick Arens to Theology Uncorked for his talk, “Sacred Signs: A Window into God’s Divine Life.” When we celebrate the Liturgy, what is actually taking place is revealed to us through what we see and experience. These “Sacred Signs” give us a clue as to what God accomplishes in the sacraments and what graces He offers to us. Father Arens will present on these Sacred Signs as they are found in the Church’s liturgy and the celebrations of the sacraments, and offer thoughts on how we can better see into the window to God’s divine life that they present to us. All this, cool drinks, and more at Theology Uncorked: Thursday, February 27, 7:00 pm at The Oaks Wine Bar, 75 W 3rd St, Winona.
