Father Frerichs Weekly Column

Just two items today. The first is to offer a special word of appreciation to all Fathers on this Father's Day weekend. Fathers have a most important role in family life and the unselfish sacrifices often given, day in and day out, can easily go unnoticed. Acknowledging the unique role of each member that makes up a family, Saint John Paul II spoke of the unique role of fathers in his 1981 encyclical titled Familiaris consortio (The Role of the Family in the Modern World) when he said:

In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family: he will perform this task by exercising generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother, by a more solicitous commitment to education, a task he shares with his wife, by work which is never a cause of division in the family but promotes its unity and stability, and by means of the witness he gives of an adult Christian life which effectively introduces the children into the living experience of Christ and the Church.

May the unique contribution that husbands and fathers bring to their families be always recognized and appreciated for what they are.

Blessings on your week,
Fr. Glenn Frerichs

St. Felix Catholic School Eric Sonnek, Principal

As we are planning and preparing for the 2020-2021 school year, we are faced with a lot of challenges with the pandemic that is going on. We are working on making sure our students and staff return to a clean and safe school. In the coming months we will be sharing our plan for that return.

A lot of people have been asking about our Annual Fall Festival and wondering if we will still have it. The answer is YES! The event will take place on Sunday, September 20, 2020. It may not look the same and/or have some of the old traditions. The committee is hard at work making sure that we can have a successful event. We have been watching what other organizations are doing with their fundraisers and getting ideas. This is a highly successful event and is very important for our school. It brings in over $100,000 to our school which in turn helps us to provide top-notch faith-based education for our students.

We ask you at this time for your prayers that we can continue the success of this event. If you can make any kind of donation toward the Fall Festival, we would greatly appreciate it.

If you have any questions or ideas, please reach out to the committee: Jada Hermann, Jackie Lingl, Kim Schmitz, Kirsten Schuth, Aileen Wagner, Shelley Wingert.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Faith Formation Nancy Hust, Interim Coordinator

Sacraments: We appreciate Fr. Frerichs dedication to making sure that our students receives these important sacraments yet this year.

First Communion Mass: The First Communion Mass will be Sunday, July 26 at 1:00 pm with families only for our 12 students.

Confirmation: Fr. Frerichs has received permission from the Bishop to confirm our confirmandees. Plans are being made for two Confirmation Masses, one at St. Agnes and one at St. Felix in July for our 16 students. With two celebrations we can safely have less than 50% in the church and still provide for social distancing between families. Please keep them in your prayers that the Holy Spirit will bless them with graces to become adult Catholics.

SAVE THE DATE: Virtual Steubenville will be hosted on July 17th (6pm-9pm CST) and 18th (11am-7pm CST). The conference will include engaging talks from many of the speakers you love, quality worship, and Jesus! We will bring you a unique and interactive experience that will allow your faith to deepen. Registration is now open at <https://www.partnershipforyouth.org/virtual-steubenville-conference/> Contact me if you are interested.

Be Not Afraid: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test.

We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap us and trip us up.

For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm.

As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love.

“Do not be afraid,” Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel.

Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His Providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him.

Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see John 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Romans 15:3).

By the gracious gift of himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress. In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked.

That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Most Holy Eucharist. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally in the Most Holy Eucharist, please come at least spiritually into my heart now. I spiritually embrace You and choose to unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You and Your Love. Thank You, Jesus! I love You! Amen.

Thank you for all that attended the Welcoming Gathering for Father Frerichs this past Wednesday.

you have a lot more going for you with Hank!
