Deacon John

As we celebrate the feast of the Assumption we remember the great Love Jesus has for his mother but also for each one of us. A number of years ago Nancy and I made a pilgrimage with Bishop Quinn and seventy other people from our diocese to the Holy Land. One of the sites we visited was the Church of Dormition. It was the place where tradition says, Mary was lifted up body and soul into heaven.

I recall an image there, a mosaic artwork depicting the hand of Jesus lifting up his Blessed Mother into her true home. Mary, like us, needed Christ's grace to enter into eternal life with the Trinity. Mary is the one who sought only to do God's will.

In Matthew 12:50 we read, "for whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother." During this time of pandemic and social unrest, you and I are to do the will of the Father. We must love God and our neighbor as ourselves. May you and I seek the same grace Mary received to reach out to those around us? Who in your neighborhood needs Christ to touch them this week through you? God holds us in His hand!

A Foreigner's Faith: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Most of us are the foreigners, the non-Israelites, about whom today's First Reading prophesies.

Coming to worship the God of Israel, we stand in the line of faith epitomized by the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel. Calling to Jesus as Lord and Son of David, this foreigner shows her great faith in God's covenant with Israel.

Jesus tests her faith three times. He refuses to answer her cry. Then, He tells her His mission is only to Israelites. Finally, He uses "dog," an epithet used to disparage non-Israelites (see Matthew 7:6). Yet she persists, believing that He alone offers salvation.

In this family drama, we see fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy and the promise we sing of in today's Psalm. In Jesus, God makes known among all the nations His way and His salvation (see John 14:6).

At the start of salvation history, God called Abraham (see Genesis 12:2). He chose his offspring, Israel, from all the nations on the face of the earth to build His covenant kingdom (see Deuteronomy 7:6-8; Isaiah 41:8).

In God's plan, Abraham was to be the father of many nations (see Romans 4:16-17). Israel was to be the firstborn of a worldwide family of God, made up of all who believe what the Canaanite professes—that Jesus is Lord (see Exodus 4:22-23; Romans 5:13-24).

Jesus came first to restore the kingdom to Israel (see Acts 1:6; 13:46). But His ultimate mission was the reconciliation of the world, as Paul declares in today's Epistle.

In the Mass we join all peoples in doing Him homage. As Isaiah foretold, we come to His holy mountain, the heavenly Jerusalem, to offer sacrifice at His altar (see Hebrews 12:22-24, 28). With the Canaanite, we take our place at the Master's table to be fed as His children.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112
