Sunday 7:30 am St. Agnes

Contact Father directly if an appointment or a general (comprehensive, lifetime) confession is desired.

INFANT BAPTISM

Call the parish office to make arrangements to have your child baptized as soon as possible! A Baptism preparation class is given to first-time parents.

MATRIMONY

Recently engaged? Contact the Pastor before setting up any arrangements to begin preparing for this holy union! Preparation is required for all marriages and must begin at least six months beforehand.

RCIA

Everyone is invited to the fullness of communion with Christ in the Catholic Church! Call the parish office to inquire about becoming Catholic.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK

If you or a family member are sick, hospitalized or homebound and wish to receive Holy Communion, contact the parish office. Those who are seriously ill or anticipating surgery should make arrangements to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as soon as possible.

Father Frerichs Weekly Column

On September 8, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Bishop Quinn will be renewing the consecration of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This consecration will take place during a special 5:15 pm Mass in Winona at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart. The IHM Seminarians and faculty will be in attendance, along with parishioners of the Cathedral.

An annual renewal of consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary has been a diocesan tradition since 2008. At the very moment of Our Lord's conception in Mary's womb, Jesus entrusted His whole being to her. Similarly, by this act of consecration, we allow Mary to actualize her mediation in our lives, enriching our diocese and our homes with many graces.

I will be praying a prayer of consecration for our parishes at next weekend's liturgies. A pamphlet about the consecration has been placed on our website and inserted in our bulletins so that you can learn more about this important devotion. Please consider consecrating, or renewing the consecration, of your home this week. Many forms of consecration can be found online. You may also choose to modify the prayer that will be used for our parishes next weekend.

Prayer of Consecration

I, (your name), in communion with Bishop John M. Quinn, Solemnly bind and consecrate my family and my home to your Immaculate Heart.

Ever Virgin, Immaculate Mother, Queen of Heaven and Earth, Mother of Divine Grace and Mother of the Church, we ask you to cover us with the Infinite Merits of your Divine Son in order to safely arrive to the Eternal Day and see God face to face.

We ask this in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Blessings on your week,
Fr. Glenn Frerichs

The Notes

Receiving Holy Communion with a Mask

As you come forward for Holy Communion, when you reach the front pew, lower your mask and then receive Communion in hand and consume the Eucharist. Then put mask back on and proceed back to your pew.

ONLINE GIVING

St. Felix now provides online giving through software called ParishSOFT Giving. Getting started is easy—just visit the online giving website at: <https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/stfelixwabasha>. When you participate, your gift will transfer directly into the parish bank account.

St. Felix Catholic School Eric Sonnek, Principal

Hi! My name is Morgan Mulholland and I am the new Fifth-Grade Teacher at St. Felix! I grew up in Elgin and now live in Theilman. I graduated from Plainview-Elgin-Millville High School in 2015. After high school, I attended Minnesota State University, Mankato and graduated in 2019 with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education with a STEM certificate. After college, I moved home and had the intentions of substituting at the school districts in the area, however, COVID-19 shut schools down and I never got the chance. In May, I was hired as staff for St. Felix God's Kids Summer Program and spent the summer with some of your kids. I am beyond EXCITED for this new adventure! Some of my favorite things to do are spending time with family, friends, and my Fiancé, snuggling with my kitty, Maverick, helping my fiancé on their goat farm, reading, and watching my favorite TV shows and movies. This last spring my fiancé even gifted me with my very own goat who we named Roz.

ST. FELIX FALL FESTIVAL NEWS

This year's main event for the Fall Festival will be an online auction. The auction will be live from Sunday, September 20, until Sunday, September 27, at 4:00 pm. The school gym will be open Monday, September 21, through Friday, September 25, from 9:00 am to 11:00 am to view all auction items and receive help with bidding. The auction link is <https://www.32auctions.com/stfelixschool> and will be viewable starting September 20. We are still taking donations for the auction! Contact Emily Durand with your planned donation or any questions at emily.c.durand@gmail.com or cell: 651-262-8736. Several ideas that could be done in spite of current health precautions include:

- Prepared frozen meals, canned goodies, fresh produce, eggs weekly
- U Pick apples or pumpkins at a family farm or garden
- Cornstalk or hay bale seasonal fall decoration
- Custom cake or baked goods
- Car detailing
- Seasonal yard help (brush trimming, weeding, mowing, raking...)
- Donated family pass for golf or skiing
- Dog walking or pet sitting
- Theme basket, kids items

We are hoping to host a general auction in the Spring of 2021. Please save your general auction items for then. The $100 Cash Raffle Tickets are still for sale. Grand prize is $10,000! Stop in at the school or Parish Office, or contact a committee member to purchase one.

To Win Them Back: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

As Ezekiel is appointed watchman over the house of Israel in today's first Reading, so Jesus in the Gospel today establishes His disciples as guardians of the new Israel of God, the Church (see Galatians 6:16).

He also puts in place procedures for dealing with sin and breaches of the faith, building on rules of discipline prescribed by Moses for Israel (see Leviticus 19:17–20; Deuteronomy 19:13). The heads of the new Israel, however, receive extraordinary powers—similar to those given to Peter (see Matthew 16:19). They have the power to bind and loose, to forgive sins and to reconcile sinners in His name (see John 20:21–23).

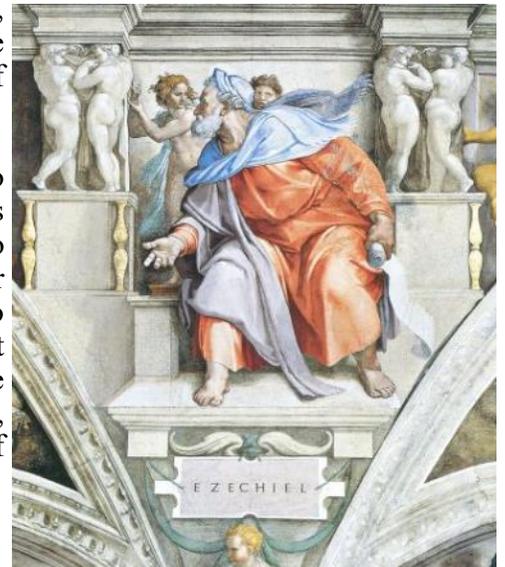

But the powers He gives the Apostles and their successors depends on their communion with Him. As Ezekiel is only to teach what he hears God saying, the disciples are to gather in His name and to pray and seek the will of our heavenly Father.

But today's readings are more than a lesson in Church order. They also suggest how we're to deal with those who trespass against us, a theme that we'll hear in next week's readings as well. Notice that both the Gospel and the First Reading presume that believers have a duty to correct sinners in our midst. Ezekiel is even told that he will be held accountable for their souls if he fails to speak out and try to correct them.

This is the love that Paul in today's Epistle says we owe to our neighbors. To love our neighbors as ourselves is to be vitally concerned for their salvation. We must make every effort, as Jesus says, to win our brothers and sisters back, to turn them from the false paths.

We should never correct out of anger or a desire to punish. Instead, our message must be that of today's Psalm—urging the sinner to hear God's voice, not to harden their hearts, and to remember that He is the one who made us, and the rock of our salvation.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. ~ Psalm 112
