Deacon John Hust

In just a few days we begin the Church season of Lent. It is a time of reflection on God's unconditional love for us manifested through His son (Jesus) and our response to His gift of new life he promises. I would like to offer a few thoughts about the three pillars of Lent: Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving.

Prayer can be defined as talking with God. It really involves communication, talking, and listening between us and our God. Our prayer shouldn't be only reciting memorized prayer but it should include time reading Scripture (God's Word) and meditating on it. We need to have a place, a time and a plan for at least 15 minutes. God's Word Among Us is a great way to reflect on God's word and his plans for us. I would encourage you to journal what the Lord is saying to you. Go to Adoration on Thursdays at St. Felix, attend Stations of the Cross or attend daily Mass. Those we love we need to spend time with.

Fasting is a tool that helps us discipline our body and mind. Giving up certain foods or beverages leads to self-denial and hopefully a focus on physical and spiritual health for ourselves as well as others. The time we might have spent on eating or relaxing can become an opportunity to pray more or reach out to our neighbor. It might be very helpful to fast from: screen time, gossip, busyness and other ways you spend much of your time. When we give something up it should lead to doing good.

Almsgiving is giving to others in need. It could be food, money, or any other type of service. God has truly given us everything and we are commanded to share and love our neighbor. I am convinced one of the hardest things for us to give is our time. Relationships take time, whether it is your spouse, God or your neighbor. Pray about who it is in your family or neighborhood that you could give time to this Lent. Visit someone in the Nursing Home or visit a neighbor and let them know they are special and loved.

Blessings on your Lenten Journey.

St. Felix Faith Formation Deacon Ed Wendt

Jesus doesn't ask us to do anything He hasn't already done. In fact, He is our model. Jesus perfectly denied Himself. He took up the cross we deserved to die on and followed the will of His Father. He did this because He loves us.

I'm creating some space during Lent to focus on God's Word in a fresh way. I will need to lay down other things I usually read or do during that time. I can already feel the loss of it. But I have a feeling my gain will be far greater.

"Calling the crowd to join His disciples, [Jesus] said, 'Anyone who intends to come with Me has to let Me lead. You're not in the driver's seat; I am. Don't run from suffering; embrace it. Follow Me and I'll show you how. Self-help is no help at all. Self-sacrifice is the way, My way, to saving yourself, your true self. What good would it do to get everything you want and lose you, the real you? What could you ever trade your soul for?'" (Mark 8:34-37, The Message).

"What good would it do to get everything you want and lose you, the real you?"

The real you, whom Jesus loves.

The real you, who hears Him say "You are Mine" when you have the heart to hear it.

Peace,

Deacon Ed

World Day of Consecrated Life

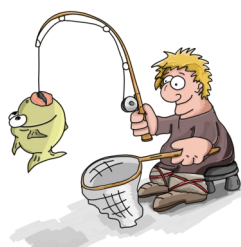

The World Day for Consecrated Life honors those who have made a commitment in support of our church by taking vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience to serve the Lord. Pray for the brothers, sisters, priests, and religious who have made a commitment to witness and share the gospel, and the love of God in a variety of ways. As we celebrate Consecrated life in our church, please offer a prayer of thanks for a special religious in your life for their service. We invite young Catholics to open their hearts and listen for the call to consider a religious vocation. This past week, we celebrated by hosting three seminarians and two sisters in our religious education classes. We thank them for their service. The group or organization at St. Felix and St. Agnes, which provides prayers and support to religious life is the Serra Club of Wabasha County. To become a member of this group or for information, please contact John Hampe (651) 565-2350 or Mary Lu Harney (651) 565-4167.
