Today we celebrate the feast of the Ascension of Our Lord. After his resurrection, having spent forty days with his disciples, our Lord ascends to his beloved Father. Indeed, this feast of the Ascension of Jesus to his Father is a Mystery and not easy to grasp but at the same time it marks the beginning of the Mission of the Church. In today's Gospel we have the farewell scenario between the disciples and Jesus and we read the intimate moment of separation between friends.

This Feast of the Ascension commemorates the completion of the earthly work of redemption of Jesus and his elevation into Heaven by His own power. This took place in the presence of His disciples on the fortieth day of his Resurrection. Through his numerous apparitions to hundreds of people between the Day of his Resurrection and his Ascension, Jesus proved two things: First he makes the disciples aware that he is the promised Messiah. Second, he assures them that he has already overcome death, and those who persevere in their faith shall also overcome death and inherit the Kingdom of God forever. He promises them the Holy Spirit who will be with them and guide them and they will be his witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

The feast of Ascension is part of what we call the Paschal Mystery. There are four inter-related parts: suffering and death; resurrection; ascension; and the sending of the Spirit. They are closely interlocked as one reality. If the resurrection says that the crucified Jesus is alive, the Ascension says that the living Jesus has entered into glory, sharing on an equal level the glory of his Father. At the same time the feast affirms that Jesus is the Messiah. Luke emphasized that the proclaiming of repentance and the forgiveness of sins was to be proclaimed in His Name, which is the messianic task. This emphasis, in "His Name," shifts the faith of the believers from Yahweh, the God of the Old Testament, to the Person of Jesus.

SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE-REPORT

May 9, 2023 Meeting

Members: Sandra Allaire, John Hampe, Mary Lu Harney, Linda Mann, Jane Timm, Roseanne Wodele, Ron Zeilinger

Chimney Swifts – Nancy Falkum and Jeanette Scholtes from Bird City provided information on chimney swifts habitat in St. Felix School and Church chimneys. A Chimney Swift watch event is slated for August for parishioners and families.

The Sister Parish – An update from diocesan Vicar General, Msgr. Thompson, and Fr. Tim Reker of St. Joseph Parish in Mankato about the positive experience of having a sister parish. The Parish Council also received this information and will determine parish support of this idea. A display will be set up in the future to provide photos and information.

Plastic-Styrofoam project – The Parish Council will send a letter to all parish groups and school about eliminating plastic and Styrofoam at school-parish events.

Fall Festival Booth – The Social Concerns Committee will have a display booth at the parish Fall Festival with information on the committee's goals, and information on environmentally friendly products and practices.
