A note from Fr. Antony:

Good afternoon!

I wish to assure you of my continued prayers during this challenging time. We at St. Elizabeth Parish are (like you) navigating unknown waters as things change day to day.

The most recent letter from Bishop Brennan is attached to this email. Please take a moment to read it and put into practice his suggestions.

To continue life as normally as possible we are expecting to be able to live-stream Masses the coming weekends. You will need to have a Facebook account, and "like" the St. Elizabeth Church Facebook page. (<https://www.facebook.com/St.Elizabeth.Church.Columbus/>) There you will see Masses at the usual times (5:30 pm Saturday, 9 & 11 am Sunday), and Daily Mass as well beginning next week at the usual times.

Also, on the television, EWTN live streams Masses, as well online at ewtn.com.

As you watch any livestreamed Mass, or just as a matter of your daily routine, you can always make a Spiritual Communion by saying the following prayer:

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Please remember to practice social distancing, and keep yourselves healthy. The sooner this crisis is over, the sooner we can gather again as a community in our own church!
