Religious Sisters of Mercy (West-Midwest)

Sr. Eloise Anna Hirlemann 1996-2012 (living)

*Left the School Sisters of St. Francis on July 4, 1928. Lived and worked with family in Sheboygan until Feb. 10, 1940 when she entered the Lake Drive Franciscans where she was known as Sr. Susanne. She was a housekeeper at St. Coletta's School, Jefferson, and at St. Francis Seminary before retiring to St. Ann's Center in 1973.

**Assigned as Musician or Teacher/Organist

***Sister was a musician but her musical role at St. Boniface is unclear.

****Left the School Sisters of St. Francis with a group of sisters who formed the Franciscan Sisters of Christ the Divine Teacher, Davenport IA.

*****These sisters lived in the parish convent at various times from 1988 until 1999 when the convent was razed. They ministered elsewhere. Sr. Delores began teaching here in 1995.

Many of the School Sisters of St. Francis returned to using their birth names in the summer of 1967. Sisters from other communities did the same. This gave rightful priority to their baptisms, honored their parents who named them and left behind the sometimes cumbersome and disliked assigned names. Sometimes, too, a sister chose a name other than the birth or religious name. To respect a sister's choice, if a sister who changed her name was at St. Boniface before 1967 her religious name is in parenthesis. If she ministered at St. Boniface in 1967 or after the name she died with or currently uses is listed. If a sister left the community, her current name or the name she died with is in brackets.

Pictures of most of the sisters can be found on our Facebook page.
