FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

As we close up this last week in October we reflect on our monthly character trait of responsibility. All Saints' Day serves as a reminder of the responsibility that we as Catholics have to maintain and nurture our faith. It encourages us to reflect on the lives of the saints and martyrs and to be responsible for our own spiritual journey.

Saints are often seen as role models in the Catholic faith, and All Saints' Day provides an opportunity to honor and learn from their lives. This can inspire us to take responsibility for our actions and strive to emulate the virtues and values exemplified by these saints. All Saints' Day is also a time to remember and pray for departed loved ones who have passed away. This practice can emphasize the responsibility of taking care of one's family and community, even after their passing, and keeping their memory alive through prayers and remembrance.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated November 5-11, 2023, when the Church prays together for an increase in vocations and in support of those men and women who are following their vocations as priests, religious brothers or sisters.

We ask you to pray in a particular way for vocations to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, and communities of sisters devoted to the Precious Blood of Jesus, including the Sisters of the Precious Blood and the Adorers of the Blood of Christ. May they give glory to the Precious Blood of Jesus through their lives of faith!

PRAYER FOR RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

PEACE AND SOCIAL JUSTICELove for God & Love for Neighbor

We've heard the above words of Jesus multiple times. The love of God is central to our lives: love with all one's heart, soul and mind. If the second commandment to love neighbor as self is like the first, then we might surmise that we must love our neighbor in the same way as we love God. By giving the answer that he does, Jesus is describing the two legs of a healthy Christian life.

Some people, however, try to get by with one leg. They love God but not their neighbor. They want a private, personal spirituality, independent of the world. Jesus calls us to be part of a community of faith, a Church, to extend His compassion to others and to be instruments of His peace. A private spirituality, isolated from the world, is foreign to the Gospel which says, "You are the salt of the earth, you are the light of the world, you are leaven.... What you did to the least of these, you did for Me."

Others do the opposite. They might love their neighbor, but have no relationship with God. Sometimes we hear people say, "I'm a good person. I don't steal, I don't hurt anyone. I try to help my neighbor." As Christians, we are called to a living relationship with Jesus Christ. We are called to experience communion of life with the Trinity, a supernatural level of living.

Each of these has a life of its own. At first, we may have identified our love for God with emotions of devotion, easy inspirations and then, one day, these disappear. They are harder to come by as we go through what has been called a "dark night of the soul." Later we see this as a grace that enables our love for God to mature. If we stay faithful through that dark night, our love for God becomes less dependent on our emotions, less demanding of God and more peaceful, more trusting. We learn surrender which is always a sign of spiritual maturity rather than trying to manipulate God as children do with parents.

The same thing happens with our love for our neighbor. At first our notion of love for others is very sentimental and romantic. Then, we encounter ingratitude, manipulation, indifference, hostility and deception. We experience the dark night of Christian charity. Again, if we stay faithful, our love of neighbor matures. We come to see that Christian charity may require candor and honesty, enabling people to become more than they are.

Love of God and love of neighbor are the two legs of our Christian life, and we need them both.

INSPIRATION from
St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

"Make an effort to radiate joy, which is the fruit of the Spirit and a characteristic mark of the kingdom of God. God is joy. We have not reason to be unhappy. Christ, wanting to share his joy with the disciples, prayed that "my joy may be in you and your joy be complete." Jesus must have radiated joy and you should do the same, in your eyes, attitude, the way you walk, the way you listen, and your whole being."

(Thirsting for God, Daily Meditations of Mother Teresa)

SJB CIRCLE OF PRAYER

If you have an immediate need for prayer support, please consider calling Margaret at 219-659-4138. She will pray with you on the phone and then send your request to the volunteers in our circle of faith who will pray specifically for your intentions. Please know that we will maintain your privacy with use of first names only. If you would like to join this steadfast community of prayer, please call the SJB rectory to add your name to the circle so that you too can pray for those who are in need of spiritual support.

NCYC is a powerfully unique three-day experience of prayer, community, evangelization, catechesis, service, and empowerment for Catholic teenagers (of high school age) and their adult chaperones. Teens and youth leaders can together harness the experience and bring it back to their parishes and schools!
