

MISSION STATEMENT

We The people of the Whiting/Robertsdale Cluster, are a Catholic Faith Community, ethnically rich, culturally diverse, and one in Faith. Inspired by the unity of The Holy Trinity, we endeavor to share our Faith as disciples of Jesus.

Today's readings give encouragement to us, who call ourselves christian. St. Paul in his 1st letter to the Thessalonians rejoices along with his fellow missionaries; because those who hear the Gospel are now living faith-filled lives.

In today's Gospel from Matthew 23:1-12, Jesus rebukes the scribes and pharisees for misusing their leadership and acting self-righteously while making weighty demands of those whom they lead. Their arrogance and prideful behavior is to be avoided.

Conversely, Jesus encourages the crowds to give humble leadership, putting their gifts at the service of others, while looking to our God and Father for guidance.

Servant leadership is what Jesus modeled and Christianity demands.

- ◆ Do I realize that gifts, talents and additional blessings I may have are actually God-given and not mine to keep?
- ◆ Do I gratefully use these God-given gifts for the betterment of others?
- ◆ What does it mean to be a servant leader?
- ◆ When have I, like Jesus, "washed feet", humbly deferred to others, and avoided prideful behaviors?
- ◆ Have I ever misused my leadership role as parent, teacher, co-worker, neighbor, or community member?

Our Prayer:

*Dear Lord, you alone are Father, Teacher, Law-giver.
Please help me to humbly serve others at home,
at work, and in my community.
Show me how to share your joy in every situation.
May my daily actions speak the message of mercy and love for all your people and all creation.
Amen.*

M.S.

INSPIRATION from St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

"We forget, sometimes, that we are called to give God's love and compassion first to our families, those who are the very life of our life. So often, in our heart, there is bitterness; on our tongue, there are ugly words; in our attitude, there is pride. To think that in that very heart, Jesus comes; on that very tongue we receive Jesus, and that attitude is so unworthy of us who are called to belong to Jesus the Christ."

PEACE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE*TAKING OFF OUR MASKS

This past week we celebrated Halloween, a day that precedes the Church's great celebration in honor of all the saints. Today's readings fit in with this dual observance of pretending to be something or someone (Halloween) and remembering those who really knew who they were (All Saints).

The Old Testament prophet Malachi and Jesus both speak challenging words to those leaders who have been pretenders. These leaders were given a sacred trust. Instead they put on costumes of importance and prestige and instead of serving others, they demanded service from others. Jesus' words are not only a warning to the religious leaders of His time, they also speak to all of us as well.

The problem with the Pharisees wasn't their interpretation of the Law to which they were very dedicated, but that they didn't practice what they preached. Jesus says, "Their words are bold, but their deeds are few." There is a bit of the Pharisee in all of us. We all have a gap between what we say and what we do. We hold our leaders to high standards (as we should) but we make many exceptions for ourselves. We expect competence from sales persons, professionals and fellow workers but excuse ourselves with great frequency. We write abusive letters of complaint to others but are ourselves easily insulted. We excuse little in anybody else but will always find an excuse for ourselves.

We can all use a healthy dose of humility. The one thing that is central to the lives of all the saints is humility. Every time we come to Mass, the Lord calls us to take off our masks and costumes and to let the Word of God work within us, to make our life a living Gospel for all people to hear and see. If there is a little bit of the Pharisee in each of us, there is also is a little bit of Christ in each of us. The question is, which one are we letting grow?

(Parts taken from a homily by Fr. S. Joseph Krempa)

SAVE THE DATE

Saturday, December 2, 8:30-11:30 am the Catholic community will host an ADVENT MORNING OF REFLECTION in the SJB Mural Room (lower level of the school). Gary Diocese, Scripture Scholar, Rev. The committee for America Needs Fatima Rosary Rally wishes to thank Father Jay and Robert Pastore and Don Kometz for putting the extras in the event. And a special thank you to our in-house artist, Terri Rossi, for designing the posters and rosary guide.

Each parish was represented in one of the decades of the rosary. Special thanks to Gil Cusson, Marie Beccaloni, Bernabe Martinez, Joyce Wagner and Mary Ann Domsich for leading the recitation of the rosary. And to Greg Kulas for leading the intro, hanging signs and posters and arranging for Robert's singing. Thank you to John and Lucille Blasko for chairing the meetings and pulling things together. Thank you to all who attended.

St. Adalbert's graciously hosted the indoor service this year as the inclement weather moved us from the Immaculate Conception Grotto. There is a video on Facebook from the event. Father Jay donated a rosary from the Holyland.

Please mark your calendars for next year's service on October 12, 2024.
