Tengamos a estos jóvenes y sus familias en nuestras oraciones. ¡ Que Dios los bendiga!

From the Desk of Father Reed C. Mungovan, S.D.S.

Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the Third Sunday of Lent.

Father Francisco Fernandez, in his book In Conversation with God, writes,

> "If each of Christ's actions in His earthly life have redemptive value, the salvation of humanity culminates in the Cross. It is to this climactic point that all of Christ's life on earth is directed. I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how I am constrained until it is accomplished! So He said to His disciples on the road to Jerusalem. He revealed to them His overwhelming desire to give His life for us, and He gave us an example of His love the Will of the Father by dying on the Cross. It is on the Cross that the soul finds its full identification with Christ. This is the deepest meaning of acts of mortification and penance."

O my Jesus, thank you for cleansing the Temple, cleanse me and help me to pick up my cross daily. Amen.

We continue to live-stream all our masses on Facebook.com/MGCPCC/. They are then placed on our website: MGCparish.org.

We have raised about $170,000 for our Keep it Cool Campaign. Please help us to find a way to raise $5,000.

I appreciate you very much,
Fr. Reed Christopher Mungovan, SDS
Holy Mary, Mother of Good Counsel, pray for us.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Parents Just Don't Understand

Anybody remember the old rap song by the Fresh Prince, aka Will Smith, "Parents Just Don't Understand?" As we grow up, it is sometimes a struggle for us to imagine that our parents understand us. It can seem impossible that Mom and Dad remember the stress of exam week or peer pressure. We never saw them as children; we never saw their disappointed faces when they weren't invited to a party, or their dashed hopes at a bad test grade. We never saw them homesick their first week of college or nervous to ask their crush to Homecoming. We're often the same way about God. We gripe about what He asks of us. "He doesn't understand sin — He's all-good," we think. "He doesn't understand temptation — He is perfect." In Scripture, God can be very much a father, telling us what we can and cannot do. And yet, in His divine genius, He is sometimes simply a man at a well, asking for a drink. For me, it turns out I didn't need to tell my parents anything about what I was going through as a kid — they knew already. What I needed was for them to tell me what to do, and how to do it. Similarly, we don't need to tell God about human nature. We need God to tell us about His nature. He's good enough to ask us for a drink, to enter into our humanity. But we have to remember, for our own sakes, to have the humility to ask Him for something, too — the water that will quench our eternal thirst.

Desde el escritorio del Padre Reed C. Mungovan, S.D.S.

Queridos Amigos en Cristo,

Hoy celebramos el Tercer Domingo de la Cuaresma.

El Padre Francisco Fernández escribe en su libro Hablar con Dios,

> "Si todos los actos de la vida de Cristo son redentores, la salvación del género humano culmina en la Cruz, hacia la que Cristo encamina toda su vida en la tierra: Tengo que recibir un bautismo, y ¡cómo me siento urgido hasta que se cumpla!, dirá a sus discípulos camino de Jerusalén. Les revela las ansias incontenibles de dar su vida por nosotros, y nos da ejemplo de su amor a la Voluntad del Padre muriendo en la Cruz. Y es en la Cruz donde el alma alcanza la plenitud de la identificación con Cristo. Ese es el sentido más profundo que tienen los actos de mortificación y penitencia."

O mi buen Jesús, gracias por purificar el templo en Jerusalén, purifícame también y ayúdame a llevar mi cruz cada día. Amen.

Estamos transmitiendo las Misas por Facebook.com/MGCPCC/. También las pueden encontrar en la página del web: MGCparish.org.

Tenemos $170.000 para nuestro sistema de aire-acondicionado. Por favor, ayúdanos a cumplir nuestra meta, necesitamos $5.000.

Les aprecio mucho,
Padre Reed Christopher Mungovan, SDS
Santa María, Madre del Buen Consejo, ruega por nosotros.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (Live the Liturgy)

Los Padres Simplemente no Entienden

¿Alguien recuerda la vieja canción de rap del Fresh Prince, también conocida como Will Smith, "Los padres simplemente no entienden"? A medida que crecemos, a veces nos cuesta imaginar que nuestros padres nos puedan comprender. Puede parecer imposible que mamá y papá recuerden el estrés de la semana de exámenes o la presión de los compañeros. Nosotros nunca los vimos de niños; nunca vimos sus caras decepcionadas cuando no fueron invitadas a una fiesta, o sus esperanzas frustradas con una mala calificación en el examen. Nunca los vimos añorar su hogar en su primera semana de universidad o nerviosos por invitar a su amor platónico al baile de la escuela. A menudo somos de la misma manera con Dios. Nos quejamos de lo que nos pide. "Él no comprende el pecado, Él es todo bueno, " pensamos. " Él no comprende la tentación, es perfecto". En las Escrituras, Dios puede ser un padre, diciéndonos lo que podemos y no podemos hacer. Y, sin embargo, en Su genio divino, a veces es simplemente un hombre junto a un pozo, pidiendo una bebida. Para mí, resulta que yo no necesitaba decirles a mis padres nada sobre lo que estaba pasando cuando era niño; ellos ya lo sabían. Lo que necesitaba era que me dijeran qué hacer y cómo hacerlo. De manera similar, no necesitamos hablar con Dios sobre la naturaleza humana. Necesitamos que Dios nos hable de su naturaleza. Tiene la bondad de pedirnos un trago, para entrar en nuestra humanidad. Pero tenemos que recordar, por nuestro propio bien, tener la humildad de pedirle algo también: el agua que saciará nuestra sed eterna.

The Importance of Purpose in Later Life.

"The best way to lengthen out our days is to walk steadily and with a purpose." —Charles Dickens

"Maintaining a healthy brain as we age is a high priority and we have discovered several practical strategies for preserving cognitive abilities.

Most of us know that regular exercise, a healthy diet, social interaction, stress reduction and mentally stimulating activities help keep our minds sharp. Another lesser-known dimension of brain health has to do with purpose. We know that people who have a sense of purpose tend to delay or reduce the cognitive losses that can occur with age."
