

READINGS

Your wedding liturgy will include three readings from Sacred Scripture. The first reading comes from the Old Testament. The second reading comes from the New Testament. The third reading comes from the Gospels. The full text for each of these selections follows. Please select one reading from each section.

OLD TESTAMENT SELECTIONS

Genesis 1:26-28, 31a [SELECTION A.1]

Male and female he created them.

Then God said:

“Let us make man in our image,
after our likeness.

Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,
the birds of the air, and the cattle,
and over all the wild animals and all the creatures that crawl on the ground.”

God created man in his image;
in the image of God he created him;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying:

“Be fertile and multiply;
fill the earth and subdue it.

Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds
of the air,
and all the living things that move
on the earth.”

God looked at everything he had made, and he found it very good.

Genesis 2:18-24 [SELECTION A.2]

The two of them became one body.

The Lord God said:

“It is not good for the man to be alone.
I will make a suitable partner for him.”

So the Lord God formed out of the ground various wild animals
and various birds of the air,
and he brought them to the man
to see what he would call them;
whatever the man called each of them would be its name.

The man gave names to all the cattle,
all the birds of the air, and all wild animals;
but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the Lord God cast a deep sleep on the man,
and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.

The Lord God then built up into a woman
the rib that he had taken from the man.

When he brought her to the man, the man said:

“This one, at last, is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;

This one shall be called ‘woman,’
for out of ‘her man’
this one has been taken.”

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body.

Genesis 24:48-51, 58-67 [SELECTION A.3]

In his love for Rebekah, Isaac found solace after the death of his mother.

The servant of Abraham said to Laban:
“I bowed down in worship to the Lord,
blessing the Lord,
the God of my master Abraham,
who had led me on the right road
to obtain the daughter of my master’s kinsman for his son.

If, therefore, you have in mind to show true
loyalty to my master,
let me know;
but if not, let me know that, too.

I can then proceed accordingly.”

Laban and his household said in reply:

“This thing comes from the Lord;
we can say nothing to you either for or against it.

Here is Rebekah, ready for you;
take her with you,
that she may become the wife
of your master’s son,
as the Lord has said.”

So they called Rebekah and asked her,

“Do you wish to go with this man?”

She answered, “I do.”

At this they allowed their sister Rebekah and her nurse to take leave,
along with Abraham’s servant and his men.

Invoking a blessing on Rebekah, they said:

“Sister, may you grow
into thousands of myriads;
And may your descendants gain possession of the gates of their enemies!”

Then Rebekah and her maids started out;
they mounted their camels
and followed the man.

So the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.

Meanwhile Isaac had gone from Beer-lahai-roi
and was living in the region of the Negeb.

One day toward evening
he went out . . . in the field, and as he looked around, he noticed that camels were approaching.

Rebekah, too, was looking about,
and when she saw him,

she alighted from her camel
and asked the servant,

“Who is the man out there,
walking through the fields toward us?”

“That is my master,” replied the servant.

Then she covered herself with her veil.

The servant recounted to Isaac
all the things he had done.

Then Isaac took Rebekah into his tent;
he married her, and thus she became his wife.

In his love for her Isaac found solace after the death of his mother Sarah.

Tobit 7:6-14 [SELECTION A.4]

May the Lord of heaven prosper you both. May he grant you mercy and peace.

Raphael and Tobiah entered the house of Raguel and greeted him.
Raguel sprang up and kissed Tobiah, shedding tears of joy.
But when he heard that Tobit had lost his eyesight,
 he was grieved and wept aloud.
He said to Tobiah:
 “My child, God bless you!
You are the son of a noble and good father.
But what a terrible misfortune that such a righteous and charitable man should be afflicted with blindness!”
He continued to weep
in the arms of his kinsman Tobiah.
His wife Edna also wept for Tobit;
 and even their daughter Sarah began to weep.
Afterward, Raguel slaughtered a ram from the flock
 and gave them a cordial reception.
When they had bathed and reclined to eat,
Tobiah said to Raphael, “Brother Azariah, ask Raguel to let me marry my kinswoman Sarah.”
Raguel overheard the words;
 so he said to the boy:
 “Eat and drink and be merry tonight, for no man is more entitled to marry my daughter Sarah than you, brother.
Besides, not even I have the right to give her to anyone but you,
 because you are my closest relative.
But I will explain the situation to you very frankly.
I have given her in marriage to seven men,
 all of whom were kinsmen of ours,
 and all died on the very night
 they approached her.

But now, son, eat and drink.
I am sure the Lord will look after you both.”
Tobiah answered, “I will eat or drink nothing until you set aside what belongs to me.”
Raguel said to him: “I will do it.
She is yours according to the decree of the Book of Moses.
Your marriage to her
 has been decided in heaven!
Take your kinswoman
 from now on you are her love,
 and she is your beloved.
She is yours today and ever after.
And tonight, son, may the Lord of heaven prosper you both.
May he grant you mercy and peace.”
Then Raguel called his daughter Sarah,
 and she came to him.
He took her by the hand and gave her to Tobiah
with the words:
 “Take her according to the law.
According to the decree written in the Book of Moses she is your wife.
Take her and bring her back safely to your father.
And may the God of heaven grant both of you peace and prosperity.”
He then called her mother and told her to bring a scroll,
 So that he might draw up a marriage contract stating that he gave Sarah to Tobiah as his wife
 according to the decree of the Mosaic law.
Her mother brought the scroll,
 and he drew up the contract,
 to which they affixed their seals.
Afterward they began to eat and drink.

Tobit 8:4b-8 [SELECTION A.5]

Allow us to live together to a happy old age.

On their wedding night Tobiah arose from bed
and said to his wife,

“Sister, get up. Let us pray and beg our Lord to have mercy on us
and to grant us deliverance.”

Sarah got up, and they started to pray and beg that deliverance might be theirs.

They began with these words:

“Blessed are you, O God of our fathers;
praised be your name forever and ever.

Let the heavens and all your creation praise you forever.

You made Adam

and you gave him his wife Eve
to be his help and support;
and from these two the human race descended.

You said, ‘It is not good for the man to be alone;

let us make him a partner like himself.’

Now, Lord, you know that I take this wife of mine

not because of lust,

but for a noble purpose.

Call down your mercy on me and on her,

and allow us to live together

to a happy old age.”

They said together, “Amen, amen.”

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31 [SELECTION A.6]

The woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

When one finds a worthy wife,
her value is far beyond pearls.

Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.

She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.

She obtains wool and flax
and makes cloth with skillful hands.

She puts her hands to the distaff,

and her fingers ply the spindle.

She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.

Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Give her a reward of her labors,

and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Song of Songs 2:8-10, 14, 16a, 8:6-7a [SELECTION A.7]

Stern as death is love.

Hark! my lover—here he comes springing across the mountains, leaping across the hills.
My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Here he stands behind our wall,
gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattices.
My lover speaks; he says to me, “Arise, my beloved, my dove, my beautiful one, and come!
“O my dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret recesses of the cliff,

Let me see you,
let me hear your voice,
For your voice is sweet,
and you are lovely.”
My lover belongs to me and I to him.
He says to me:
“Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm;
For stern as death is love,
relentless as the nether world is devotion;
its flames are a blazing fire.
Deep waters cannot quench love,
nor floods sweep it away.”

Sirach 26:1-4, 13-16 [SELECTION A.8]

Like the sun rising in the Lord's heavens, the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.

Blessed the husband of a good wife,
twice-lengthened are his days;
A worthy wife brings joy to her husband,
peaceful and full is his life.
A good wife is a generous gift bestowed upon him who fears the Lord;
Be he rich or poor, his heart is content,
and a smile is ever on his face.
A gracious wife delights her husband,
her thoughtfulness puts flesh on his bones;
A gift from the Lord is her governed speech,

and her firm virtue is of surpassing worth.
Choicest of blessings is a modest wife, priceless her chaste soul.
A holy and decent woman adds grace upon grace;
indeed, no price is worthy of her temperate soul.
Like the sun rising in the Lord's heavens,
the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.

Jeremiah 31:31-32a, 33-34a [SELECTION A.9]

I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.
It will not be like the covenant
I made with their fathers:
the day I took them by the hand
to lead them forth from the land of Egypt.
But this is the covenant which I will make
with the house of Israel after those days,
says the Lord.

I will place my law within them, and write it
upon their hearts;
I will be their God,
and they shall be my people.
No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives
how to know the Lord.
All, from least to greatest, shall know me,
says the Lord.

NEW TESTAMENT SELECTIONS

Romans 8:31b-35, 37-39 [SELECTION B.1]

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Brothers and sisters:
If God is for us, who can be against us?
He did not spare his own Son
but handed him over for us all,
how will he not also give us everything else
along with him?
Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?
It is God who acquits us.
Who will condemn?
It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
who also is at the right hand of God,
who indeed intercedes for us.
What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress, or persecution,
or famine, or nakedness, or peril,
or the sword?
No, in all these things,
we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death,
nor life, nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature
will be able to separate us from the love of God
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 12:1-2, 9-18 (Long Form) [SELECTION B.2]

Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

I urge you, brothers and sisters,
by the mercies of God,
to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God,
your spiritual worship.
Do not conform yourselves to this age
but be transformed
by the renewal of your mind,
that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.
Let love be sincere;
hate what is evil,
hold on to what is good;
love one another with mutual affection;
anticipate one another in showing honor.
Do not grow slack in zeal,
be fervent in spirit,
serve the Lord.

Rejoice in hope,
endure in affliction,
persevere in prayer.
Contribute to the needs of the holy ones,
exercise hospitality.
Bless those who persecute you,
bless and do not curse them.
Rejoice with those who rejoice,
weep with those who weep.
Have the same regard for one another;
do not be haughty
but associate with the lowly;
do not be wise in your own estimation.
Do not repay anyone evil for evil;
be concerned for what is noble
in the sight of all.
If possible, on your part, live at peace with all.

Romans 12:1-2, 9-13 (Short Form) [SELECTION B.3]

Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

I urge you, brothers and sisters,
by the mercies of God,
to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God,
your spiritual worship.
Do not conform yourselves to this age
but be transformed
by the renewal of your mind,
that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.
Let love be sincere;
hate what is evil,

hold on to what is good;
love one another with mutual affection;
anticipate one another in showing honor.
Do not grow slack in zeal,
be fervent in spirit,
serve the Lord.
Rejoice in hope,
endure in affliction,
persevere in prayer.
Contribute to the needs of the holy ones,
exercise hospitality.

Romans 15:1b-3a, 5-7, 13 [SELECTION B.4]

Welcome one another as Christ welcomed you.

Brothers and sisters:
We ought to put up with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves;
let each of us please our neighbor
for the good, for building up.
For Christ did not please himself.
May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, that with one accord you may with one voice

glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Welcome one another, then,
as Christ welcomed you,
for the glory of God.
May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing,
so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20 [SELECTION B.5]

Your body is a temple of the Spirit.

Brothers and sisters:
The body is not for immorality,
but for the Lord,
and the Lord is for the body;
God raised the Lord
and will also raise us by his power.
Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ?
Whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.
Avoid immorality.

Every other sin a person commits
is outside the body,
but the immoral person
sins against his own body.
Do you not know that your body
is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God,
and that you are not your own?
For you have been purchased at a price.
Therefore glorify God in your body.

1 Corinthians 12:31 - 13:8a [SELECTION B.6]

If I do not have love, I gain nothing.

Brothers and sisters:
Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.
But I shall show you a still more excellent way.
If I speak in human and angelic tongues
but do not have love,
I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal.
And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries
and all knowledge;
if I have all faith so as to move mountains,
but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast
but do not have love, I gain nothing.
Love is patient, love is kind.
It is not jealous, is not pompous,
it is not inflated, it is not rude,
it does not seek its own interests,
it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing
but rejoices with the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never fails.

Ephesians 5:2a, 21-33 (Long Form) [SELECTION B.7]

This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.

Brothers and sisters:
Live in love, as Christ loved us
and handed himself over for us.
Be subordinate to one another
out of reverence for Christ.
Wives should be subordinate to their husbands
as to the Lord.
For the husband is head of his wife
just as Christ is head of the Church,
he himself the savior of the body.
As the Church is subordinate to Christ,
so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything.
Husbands, love your wives,
even as Christ loved the Church
and handed himself over
for her to sanctify her,
cleansing her by the bath of water
with the word,
that he might present to himself

the Church in splendor,
without spot or wrinkle or any such thing,
that she might be holy and without blemish.
So also husbands should love their wives
as their own bodies.
He who loves his wife loves himself.
For no one hates his own flesh
but rather nourishes and cherishes it,
even as Christ does the Church,
because we are members of his Body.
*For this reason a man shall leave
his father and his mother
and be joined to his wife,
and the two shall become one flesh.*
This is a great mystery,
but I speak in reference
to Christ and the Church.
In any case, each one of you should love his wife as himself,
and the wife should respect her husband.

Ephesians 5:2a, 25-32 (Short Form) [SELECTION B.8]

This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.

Brothers and sisters:
Live in love, as Christ loved us
and handed himself over for us.
Husbands, love your wives,
even as Christ loved the Church
and handed himself over for her to sanctify her,
cleansing her by the bath of water
with the word,
that he might present to himself
the Church in splendor,
without spot or wrinkle or any such thing,
that she might be holy and without blemish.

So also husbands should love their wives
as their own bodies.
He who loves his wife loves himself.
For no one hates his own flesh
but rather nourishes and cherishes it,
even as Christ does the Church,
because we are members of his Body.
*For this reason a man shall leave
his father and his mother
and be joined to his wife,
and the two shall become one flesh.*
This is a great mystery,
but I speak in reference
to Christ and the Church.

Philippians 4:4-9 [SELECTION B.9]

The God of peace will be with you.

Brothers and sisters:
Rejoice in the Lord always.
I shall say it again: rejoice!
Your kindness should be known to all.
The Lord is near.
Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.
Then the peace of God
that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.
Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.
Then the God of peace will be with you.

Colossians 3: 12-17 [SELECTION B.10]

And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection.

Brothers and sisters:
Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved,
heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility,
gentleness, and patience,
bearing with one another
and forgiving one another,
if one has a grievance against another;
as the Lord has forgiven you,
so must you also do.
And over all these put on love,
that is, the bond of perfection.
And let the peace of Christ control your hearts,

the peace into which you were also called in one Body.
And be thankful.
Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
as in all wisdom you teach and admonish
one another,
singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs
with gratitude in your hearts to God.
And whatever you do, in word or in deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Hebrews 13:1-4a, 5-6b [SELECTION B.11]

Let marriage be held in honor by all.

Brothers and sisters:
Let mutual love continue.
Do not neglect hospitality,
for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.
Be mindful of prisoners as if sharing their imprisonment,
and of the ill-treated as of yourselves,
for you also are in the body.

Let marriage be honored among all and the marriage bed be kept undefiled.
Let your life be free from love of money but be content with what you have,
for he has said, I will never forsake you or abandon you.
Thus we may say with confidence:
*The Lord is my helper,
and I will not be afraid.*

1 Peter 3: 1-9 [SELECTION B.12]

Be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another.

Beloved:

You wives should be subordinate to your husbands so that,

even if some disobey the word,
they may be won over without a word
by their wives' conduct when they observe your reverent and chaste behavior.

Your adornment should not be an external one:

braiding the hair, wearing gold jewelry, or dressing in fine clothes,
but rather the hidden character of the heart,
expressed in the imperishable beauty of a gentle and calm disposition, which is precious in the sight of God.

For this is also how the holy women who hoped in God
once used to adorn themselves

and were subordinate to their husbands;
thus Sarah obeyed Abraham,
calling him "lord."

You are her children when you do what is good and fear no intimidation.

Likewise, you husbands should live with your wives in understanding,

showing honor to the weaker female sex,
since we are joint heirs of the gift of life,
so that your prayers may not be hindered.
Finally, all of you, be of one mind,
sympathetic, loving toward one another,
compassionate, humble.

Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult;
but, on the contrary, a blessing,
because to this you were called,
that you might inherit a blessing.

1 John 3: 18-24 [SELECTION B.13]

Love in deed and in truth.

Children, let us love not in word or speech
but in deed and truth.

Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us,
we have confidence in God
and receive from him whatever we ask,

because we keep his commandments
and do what pleases him.

And his commandment is this:

we should believe
in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another
just as he commanded us.

Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them,
and the way we know that he remains in us
is from the Spirit that he gave us.

1 John 4:7-12 [SELECTION B.14]

God is love.

Beloved, let us love one another,
because love is of God;
everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.
Whoever is without love does not know God,
for God is love.
In this way the love of God was revealed to us:
God sent his only-begotten Son into the world
so that we might have life through him.

In this is love:
not that we have loved God,
but that he loved us
and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.
Beloved, if God so loved us,
we also must love one another.
No one has ever seen God.
Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us,
and his love is brought to perfection in us.

Revelation 19:1, 5-9a [SELECTION B.15]

Blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb.

I, John, heard what sounded like the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying: “Alleluia!
Salvation, glory, and might belong to our God.”
A voice coming from the throne said:
“Praise our God, all you his servants, and you who revere him, small and great.”
Then I heard something like the sound of a great multitude
or the sound of rushing water or mighty peals of thunder,
as they said: “Alleluia!
The Lord has established his reign,

our God, the almighty.
Let us rejoice and be glad
and give him glory.
For the wedding day of the Lamb has come,
his bride has made herself ready.
She was allowed to wear
a bright, clean linen garment.”
(The linen represents the righteous deeds of the holy ones.)
Then the angel said to me, “Write this:
Blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb.”

GOSPEL SELECTIONS

Matthew 5:1-12a [SELECTION C.1]

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

When Jesus saw the crowds,
he went up the mountain,
and after he had sat down,
his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted
for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you

and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.

Matthew 5:13-16 [SELECTION C.2]

You are the light of the world.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“You are the salt of the earth.

But if salt loses its taste,
with what can it be seasoned?

It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world.

A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.

Nor do they light a lamp

and then put it under a bushel basket;

it is set on a lamp stand,
where it gives light to all in the house.

Just so, your light must shine before others,
that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

Matthew 7:21, 24-29 (Long Form) [SELECTION C.3]

A wise man built his house on rock.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’
will enter the Kingdom of heaven,
but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

“Everyone who listens to these words of mine
and acts on them
will be like a wise man
who built his house on rock.

The rain fell, the floods came,
and the winds blew and buffeted the house.

But it did not collapse;
it had been set solidly on rock.

And everyone who listens to these words of mine

but does not act on them

will be like a fool who built his house on sand.

The rain fell, the floods came,

and the winds blew and buffeted the house.

And it collapsed and was completely ruined.”

When Jesus finished these words,

the crowds were astonished at his teaching,
for he taught them as one having authority,
and not as their scribes.

Matthew 7:21, 24-25 (Short Form) [SELECTION C.4]

A wise man built his house on rock.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’
will enter the Kingdom of heaven,
but only the one who does the will
of my Father in heaven.

“Everyone who listens to these words of mine
and acts on them
will be like a wise man
who built his house on rock.

The rain fell, the floods came,

and the winds blew and buffeted the house.

But it did not collapse;

it had been set solidly on rock.”

Matthew 19:3-6 [SELECTION C.5]

What God has united, man must not separate.

Some Pharisees approached Jesus,

and tested him, saying,

“Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife
for any cause whatever?”

He said in reply,

“Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator

made them male and female and said,

For this reason a man shall leave

his father and mother

and be joined to his wife,

and the two shall become one flesh?

So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Therefore, what God has joined together, man must not separate.”

Matthew 22:35-40 [SELECTION C.6]

This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it.

One of the Pharisees, a scholar of the law,
tested Jesus by asking, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?”
He said to him,
“You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,

with all your soul,
and with all your mind.
This is the greatest and the first commandment.
The second is like it:
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”

Mark 10:6-9 [SELECTION C.7]

They are no longer two, but one flesh.

Jesus said:
“From the beginning of creation,
God made them male and female.
For this reason a man shall leave
his father and mother

and be joined to his wife,
and the two shall become one flesh.
So they are no longer two but one flesh.
Therefore what God has joined together,
no human being must separate.”

John 2:1-11 [SELECTION C.8]

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee.

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee,
and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.
When the wine ran short,
the mother of Jesus said to him,
“They have no wine.”
And Jesus said to her,
“Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come.”
His mother said to the servers,
“Do whatever he tells you.”
Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons.
Jesus told them,
“Fill the jars with water.”
So they filled them to the brim.

Then he told them,
“Draw some out now
and take it to the headwaiter.”
So they took it.
And when the headwaiter tasted
the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from (although the servants who had drawn the water knew),
the headwaiter called the bridegroom
and said to him, “Everyone serves good wine first,
and then when people have drunk freely,
an inferior one;
but you have kept the good wine until now.”
Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee
and so revealed his glory,
and his disciples began to believe in him.

John 15:9-12 [SELECTION C.9]

Remain in my love.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“As the Father loves me, so I also love you.

Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments,

you will remain in my love,

just as I have kept

my Father’s commandments

and remain in his love.

“I have told you this

so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete.

This is my commandment:

love one another as I love you.”

John 15:12-16 [SELECTION C.10]

This is my commandment: love one another.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“This is my commandment:

love one another as I love you.

No one has greater love than this,

to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.

You are my friends

if you do what I command you.

I no longer call you slaves,

because a slave does not know what his master is doing.

I have called you friends,

because I have told you everything

I have heard from my Father.

It was not you who chose me,

but I who chose you

and appointed you to go

and bear fruit that will remain,

so that whatever you ask the Father

in my name he may give you.”

John 17: 20-26 (Long Form) [SELECTION C.11]

That they may be brought to perfection as one.

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

“I pray not only for my disciples,

but also for those who will believe in me

through their word,

so that they may all be one,

as you, Father, are in me and I in you,

that they also may be in us,

that the world may believe that you sent me.

And I have given them the glory you gave me,

so that they may be one, as we are one,

I in them and you in me,

that they may be brought to perfection as one,

that the world may know that you sent me,

and that you loved them even as you loved me.

Father, they are your gift to me.

I wish that where I am

they also may be with me,

that they may see my glory that you gave me,

because you loved me

before the foundation of the world.

Righteous Father,

the world also does not know you,

but I know you,

and they know that you sent me.

I made known to them your name and I will make it known,

that the love with which you loved me

may be in them and I in them.”

John 17:20-23 (Short Form) [SELECTION C.12]

That they may be brought to perfection as one.

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

“Holy Father, I pray not only for these,
but also for those who will believe in me through their word,
so that they may all be one,
as you, Father, are in me and I in you,
that they also may be in us,
that the world may believe that you sent me.

And I have given them the glory you gave me,
so that they may be one, as we are one,
I in them and you in me,
that they may be brought to perfection as one,
that the world may know that you sent me,
and that you loved them even as you loved me.
