Old Business:

Discussed and reflected about the Heroes for Life banquet in September that several members attended. Positive and worthy event.

New Business:

- We had discussion on setting an April date for the KC Auction but nothing was finalized.
- Motion by Pat, seconded by Tony to give Christmas gifts in the past to St. Michael's staff.
- Discussed donating to the mass musicians but decided to table until the next meeting.
- Discussion about donating to St. Michael's basketball program this year and it was decided not to.
- Motion made by Scott Hacker and seconded by Myron to make a donation to Mike Larsen in appreciation for his service to KC's and all his good works and support of the community.
- Set dates for the Fish Fry: February 28, April 3rd tentatively.
- Motion made by Myron and seconded by Pat to leave the meal ticket the same as last year. Had discussion to start a Sunday School and the KC's to have coffee and rolls on Sundays after mass. Decided to table this until a future meeting.
- Discussion was also had about continuing other events currently done by the school.
- Motion was made by Pat and seconded by Tony to donate to Carter Currans seminarian in support of the RSVP (Refund Support Vocation) Program.

The meeting was closed with a prayer led by Scott.

Next Meeting: February 28th after the first fish fry.

Respectively submitted, Jeff Kodet

St Michael's Education Committee Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, Jan 16, 2020 6:30 pm

The meeting was called to order by President Joel Heiling. Members in attendance were Scott Hacker, Ann Christensen, Jeff Kodet, Andrea Welter, Dan Davis, Mrs. Fischer, Msgr Lozinski and Father Andy. The meeting opened with prayer. The agenda was reviewed and approved. Minutes were read and approved from the December 3, 2019 meeting.

School, Parish and Religious Education financial reports were reviewed through 12/31/19.

In old business, we held a Pizza Ranch Tip night on 12/9/19. This fundraiser had a lower turnout than in the past, due to the weather and other events going on that evening. The Christmas Program was 12/18/19, all students did a great job singing and memorizing their lines.

In New Business, the FunFest is set for 2/9/20. Prizes for the raffle and silent auction are slowly coming in. We would like all prizes in before the Sausage Dinner, so they can be displayed in the gym. Tickets were handed out to the students before Christmas break. Tickets are $5 each this year. Set up for the carnival will be on Friday this year. All parents will be invited to help set up.

Also in New Business, Catholic Schools week is set for Jan 26th-31st. Daily dress up days and events are planned throughout the week. Highlights include the alumni lunch on Monday, game day on Wednesday, talent show and family luncheon on Thursday and bowling on Friday. No one has stepped forward to manage the Alumni Committee, so Mrs. Fischer is going to reach out to the parish by putting it in the church bulletin. There was also discussion on the tuition assistance guidelines for 2021 and beyond. There are numerous criteria that will need to be set and approved. The goal is to have these guidelines created and approved prior to 3/1/20. Education Committee and Administrative Counsel will have a meeting on 2/25/20 to finalize.

The Principal's Report and Religious Education Report were both read and approved.

The next meeting will be 2/25/20 at 6:30 pm. The meeting adjourned in prayer with the Education Committee and Administrative Counsel members.

Andrea Welter

Secretary
