ST. ANNE'S MISSION

Liturgical Moment

Keep Christ in Christmas Family Activities

1. White Stocking

A simple, white stocking hangs at the front of the rest of the stockings throughout the Christmas season. Whenever a person does something kind for another person, or just has something to be thankful for, they are encouraged to write it down, and put it in the stocking (anonymously.) On Christmas Eve, read each of them out loud. Some of them are silly, others very touching. But they all are meant to be our gifts to Jesus. It's fun to hear what others wrote down, from the children to the adults. Can also be done just on Christmas...

2. Build Bethlehem with Blocks

This is a fun one to incorporate with the Fisher Price Nativity if you have it. Bring out all your blocks, and tell your children about the birth place of Jesus. If you have a little nativity, set it up, and then have your children create the town of Bethlehem with blocks.

If you don't have a nativity, let your kids make one out of blocks, too!
It's a great way to let them use their imaginations, but teaching at the same time

3. Listen to Religious Christmas Songs

I love all kinds of Christmas music, so I'm not saying don't listen to White Christmas, Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer, or Frosty the Snowman. But be sure to include some beautiful religious songs as well.
Sing them with your children! There's so many wonderful religious Christmas songs out there.

4. Christmas Caroling to a Nursing Home or Hospital

Sing Christmas carols at a local nursing home.
There was nothing sweeter than visiting with these people, many of which never had any visitors. They might even sing along.
This is a great way to bring Christmas joy to some others;
Many people in nursing homes love especially when children come along, so this is a great activity for the whole family!

5. Study Scriptures about Christ

Make a special effort to read scriptures pertaining to Jesus Christ.
Find individual verses of scripture of Christ that you can read and talk about with your children!
