Holy Thursday Meal in the Home -- Remembering the Last Supper

Holy Thursday celebrates the institution of the Sacrament of the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Holy Orders. The Eucharist was established within the Passover meal by Jesus with His Apostles. A wonderful way to bring home the richness of this feast is to imitate the Last Supper by recalling some aspects of the Passover meal and a foot washing ceremony with your family in imitation of Jesus.

We need to be reminded that although this meal is reminiscent of the Passover meal, it is different than what the Jews celebrate because Christ already died and saved us, so we are not still awaiting a Messiah. We are merely doing it in imitation of Christ, so we can use all of our senses to know, love and serve Christ.

Before the meal, the family gathers for the Washing of the Feet. The initial reaction is like Peter's, "You shall never wash my feet!" (John 13:8) But today is known as Maundy Thursday because of Christ's Mandatum: He washed the feet of His disciples, explaining by saying: "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him." (John 13:13-16).

Washing of the Feet is a sign of the Sacrament of penance, showing repentance and forgiveness, of rebirth in grace.

The English word Maundy comes from the Latin word mandatum, which literally means "commandment."
"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

Good Friday -- Venerating the Cross at home

1) Put a crucifix in a place of honor.

Place it on your mantle, a bookshelf, or a table.

Put some lit candles nearby

2) Kneel before the crucifix and spend some time in prayer.

Thank Jesus for the gift of our salvation, make an act of contrition, and say the Prayer Before the Crucifix:

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul, I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope and charity, with true contrition for my sins and a firm purpose of amendment; while with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Thy five wounds, having before my eyes the words which David, Thy prophet put on Thy lips concerning Thee: 'They have pierced My hands and My feet, they have numbered all My bones' (Psalm 21: 17,18).

Say an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be.

3) Kiss the crucifix.

Spend as much time as you'd like to in prayer before the crucifix meditating on the Passion. Whenever you'd like to, kiss Jesus' feet on your crucifix and remember how truly loved we all are.
