Liturgical Moment - Fourth Sunday of Advent

LOVE

In our last week of Advent, we are invited to experience the love of Christ, as well share that gift with others. It is love that brings Jesus into our world and it is love that transforms our being.

Advent has prepared us for the coming of Christ, and this last week brings it all together. "God so loved the world that he sent his only Son" (John 3:16). And it is because of that love that we are called to be loving to the stranger, oppressed, and marginalized.

Tree Blessing

Lord our God,
we praise you for the light of creation: the sun, the moon, and the stars of the night.

We praise you for the light of Israel:
the Law, the prophets, and the wisdom of the Scriptures.

We praise you for Jesus Christ, your Son:
he is Emmanuel, God-with-us, the Prince of Peace,
who fills us with the wonder of your love.

Keep Christ in Christmas with Family Advent Activities

White Stocking

A simple, white stocking hangs at the front of the rest of the stockings throughout the Christmas season.

Whenever a person does something kind for another person, or just has something to be thankful for, they are encouraged to write it down, and put it in the stocking (anonymously.)

On Christmas Eve, read each of them out loud.

Some of them are silly, others very touching. But they all are meant to be our gifts to Jesus.

It's fun to hear what others wrote down,
from the children to the adults.

Can also be done just on Christmas...

An Advent Prayer

In night's quiet,
when we have time and silence to think,
the songs of this season
come drifting into our minds.

In the quiet they are welcomed,
and our spirits somehow delight
in this sweet Advent time.

The dark seems comfortable,
and our songs fit the mood of night.

"Come, long awaited Savior,"
into the darkness of our lives.

There is a lot of darkness in our lives . . .
so many places where we live without God.

It is not easy to stay with him.

It is not always easy to find him

in our work, in traffic, in our families.

But now, gathered together,
we come to his light.

We can feel the warmth of his love.

We can sing about his coming.

Here we can find this Jesus the Christ who is willing to walk in our darkness with us,
born to become our light.
