John 10:1-10

¹I tell you the truth, the man who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. ²The man who enters by the gate is the shepherd of his sheep.

Liturgical Moment

4th Sunday of Easter

Good Shepherd Sunday

Our Gospel this week is from the Gospel According to John. In this Gospel, Jesus tells us He is the good shepherd. Jesus uses the example of a shepherd for those listening to him as this was a common way of life at the time of his public ministry. At the end of the Gospel, Jesus tells us he is the “gate.” Jesus was sent to us by our heavenly Father so that we might have eternal life! All who enter Heaven, enter through Him! May 1—Feast of St. Joseph the Worker

To capture the devotion to Saint Joseph within the Catholic liturgy, in 1870, Pope Pius IX declared Saint Joseph the patron of the universal Church. In 1955, Pope Pius XII added the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker.

This silent saint, who was given the noble task of caring and watching over the Virgin Mary and Jesus, now cares for and watches over the Church and models for all the dignity of human work.

Saint Joseph is held up as a model of such work. Pius XII emphasized this when he said, "The spirit flows to you and to all men from the heart of the God-man, Savior of the world, but certainly, no worker was ever more completely and profoundly penetrated by it than the foster father of Jesus, who lived with Him in closest intimacy and community of family life and work."
