1st Communion Live-stream

If family or friends want to watch 1st Communion, they can watch the live-stream on their computer, tablet or smartphone.

Go to www.holyfamilyjasper.com

Scroll down to the bottom of the page. There are two boxes with black video players. The top one is the “April Liturgy Communion Live-stream” and the bottom is the recording of the previous week’s Mass.

Click the Play button under “April Liturgy Live-stream.” (The Play button is the white triangle on the black media player)

In the bottom right-hand corner of the black media player are volume controls and controls to make the player fullscreen. Make sure the volume on your computer is not muted.

The live-stream will play from 10:00 am Eastern Daylight Time to just after the end of the Divine Liturgy. (If the 1st Communion is rescheduled for 12:30 pm, the 10:00 am live stream will run for the regular 10:30 Mass and the 1st Communion Mass stream will start from 12:00 pm instead)

A HD recording of the full 1st Communion will be available in May. You are welcome to email me for more information at jmunning@evdio.org.

Recording the live stream without authorization is prohibited.
