Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

TIME

The holidays are well behind us; the year stretches out ahead. What sort of year will it be? To judge by the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, it will be a year acceptable to the Lord. When Jesus announced the arrival of God's favor, it was a message for all time, for every year. Similarly, we read today in Nehemiah how the people gathered with solemnity to hear God's word as though for the first time. They listened, then fell to the ground and wept. But the prophet said, "Today is holy... do not be sad, and do not weep."

The year acceptable to the Lord is this year. The day that is holy is this day. The time to listen is now.

What sort of year will you have? What sort of day? God's help is always here. What you do with each day can be holy and acceptable to the Lord if you but listen to and act on God's word.

Many Catholics feel they know about Jesus but do not feel they know him personally. The bridge between where we are and where we want to be in our faith journey can be confusing without the right guidance. In Under the Influence of Jesus, best-selling author Joe Paprocki explains complex spiritual concepts with engaging discussion so that "everyday" Catholics can integrate and articulate their faith and live the Gospel in a way that is simple, compelling, contemporary, liberating, and life-changing.
