A Student's Prayer for a New School Year

Lord Jesus, I ask for Your help as I begin this new school year.

Allow me to experience Your presence in the many blessings You put before me.

Open my eyes to the new challenges and exciting opportunities that this new school year brings.

Open my heart and mind to new friends and new teachers.

Give me a generous spirit to be enthusiastic with my studies and courage to accept new opportunities.

Help me to be attentive to my teachers and let me experience Your presence in my new friends.

Jesus, inspire me to do my best this year!

Amen

DID YOU KNOW?

What makes a child run away?

An endangered runaway is a child under the age of 18 who goes missing on his or her own accord, and whose parents do not know where they are. These children are vulnerable to abuse, trafficking, homelessness, and substance abuse. A young person may think running away is the only option if he or she is subject to abuse at home, family conflicts, struggles with mental health, drugs, or alcohol, or becomes the victim of an online predator. For more information on endangered runaways,

MASS INTENTIONS

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. Continuing this longstanding Catholic practice, Holy Angels welcomes requests for "Mass Intentions" from parishioners. You can remember someone who has died recently or many years ago. The Mass intentions do not have to be just for the dead. They make beautiful gifts for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc. And to offer an intention for someone who is struggling with a serious illness or other life trauma shows you want the Lord to support them in their need. Mass intentions must be requested in person in our Parish Office. On September 1, we will open the Mass intentions for the month of November.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE DECEASED, PATRICIA MCSWEENEY

May eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

ANGELS IN TRAINING

Here at Holy Angels School, we are blessed to have a student population of angels or as we call them, angels in training, that go out into the community and serve others. The Boy scouts did a beach clean-up this past summer, while the Girl scouts made welcome bags for each new school family. However, one newly turned 7 year old proved that even the littlest of students can earn their angel wings.

First grade student, Lorenzo A., decided that for his birthday, instead of receiving birthday gifts this year, he was going to give to others in need, a tradition that his parents started when he was "little". After seeing homeless encampments on his way to Monster Jam, Lorenzo wanted the homeless who are often forgotten, to know that they are loved. He, with the help of his mom and dad, collected bath towels and soap to donate to the Midnight Mission, which happens to be the oldest homeless services organization in Los Angeles. In total, after a big social media campaign and reaching out to family members, friends, classmates and loved ones, he was able to collect and donate 602 bath towels and 777 bars of soap! Way to go Lorenzo!

Thank you to everyone who came by Mount Lowe for the schools first FUNdraiser of the year! A great time was had by all!

HA welcomed back 230 students for the first day of school, which took place on Tuesday, August 23rd. We pray that both teachers and students have a WONDERFUL year filled with learning, laughter and prayer!

GIFT OF A CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Catholic schools offer a strong and consistent academic education infused within a faith-based curriculum. It is through this Christ centered environment that we are unique and can help our students make a difference in their lives to reach their full potential.

We help our students go into the world to be life-giving members of society who are highly skilled, tolerant, loving and just.

This is what Catholic schools do best. We immerse our children in the Gospel values so that they are the living Christ: Christ's arms, Christ's legs, here on earth, to minister to His people.

- Saturday: St. Gregory the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church

Saint of the Week

Saint Gregory the Great lived in a most turbulent time. There were devastating episodes of plague, the sacking of Rome and the breakdown of strong Roman rule, invasions by Lombards and Franks, floods, and a widening gap between imperial Byzantium and the Roman Church.

Born around 540 into a noble Roman family, Saint Gregory was probably trained in law, and started his public service as a Prefect of Rome. However, upon the death of his father, he converted his family home to monastery, where he resided as a monk. He built six more monasteries in Sicily and one in Rome.

Often called the father of the medieval papacy and Apostle of the English, Saint Gregory was proclaimed Pope by acclamation in 590. Although he was reluctant to assume this post, preferring the cloistered life, his accomplishments were many. He was an extremely capable manager of Church estates and tenants and is known for his reform of the liturgy. He was instrumental in the consolidation of papal power and led the fight against the many heresies promoted by small Christian groups at the time. Through his prolific correspondence he oversaw monastic life, curtailing the power of grasping bishops, correcting abuses, and enforcing discipline. He was particularly concerned with the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his monastery including Saint Augustine of Canterbury to evangelize there.

Saint Gregory died in 604 and was sainted immediately. He is one of four key doctors of the Western Church, including Saints Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome.
