FOSTERING STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship involves more than just the gift we bring to the altar. Today's readings say clearly that it is fidelity to God's law that makes our offering acceptable.

This Week's Stewardship of Time and Talent

We gratefully acknowledge Joe Wintroath who sacrificially shares his Time, Talent and Treasure with the Parish, as an Usher. We thank you Joe!

His Mission is Our Mission

We're getting ready for the Holy Angels 2026 Parish Mission, and we're excited to welcome Frs. Bob and Dick Gielow, C.M., back to our community. They'll be preaching at all the Masses on Mission Weekend, March 7–8—Saturday at 5:00 PM and Sunday at 7:30, 9:00, and 11:00 AM. It's a wonderful chance for all of us to hear their message, "His Mission is Our Mission," and begin the week rooted in prayer and renewal.

Then, from March 9–11, we'll gather again each evening for Mission Mass at 7:00 PM—Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. These nights always bring a special sense of grace and connection, and we'd love for you to be part of it. Just a quick note: there will be no 8:30 AM morning Mass on those three days. We hope you'll join us for this uplifting week in the life of our parish.

Shroud Presentation: March 2, 6:30pm in the church

“Who is the Man in the Shroud?”

Holy Angels Parish, in partnership with www.Othonia.org, cordially invites you to be part of a special presentation of The Shroud of Turin. The study of the Shroud of Turin lies at the intersection of faith and science. It provides the opportunity for believers and skeptics alike to probe, question, and ponder the mysterious image on a linen cloth of a man with the wounds described in the Gospel accounts of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus.

The evening will take place at Holy Angels Church on March 2nd, 2026, at 6:30pm and will be presented by Nora Creech, a graduate of Shroud Studies through Othonia, a non-profit educational and research organization dedicated to the Shroud of Turin. The event will include a lecture by Nora Creech, replicas of the Shroud, weapons of the Passion and a question-and-answer session. Don't miss this opportunity to learn about the Shroud of Turin, its mystery and how it brings faith and science together.

DID YOU KNOW?

Online enticement: what is it and how to talk about it

Online enticement involves an individual communicating with someone believed to be a child via the internet with the intent to commit a sexual offense or abduction. This is a broad category of online exploitation in which a child is being groomed to take sexually explicit images and/or ultimately meet face-to-face with someone for sexual purposes, or to engage in a sexual conversation online or, in some instances, to sell/trade the child’s sexual images. This type of victimization takes place across every online platform – social media, messaging apps, game, etc. The goals of online enticement vary, but most commonly offenders seem to want to extort additional sexually explicit images from the child. Children and teens may not take the first steps in disclosing to an uncomfortable online interaction, so it’s important to understand the issue and how to talk about it.
