

HOLY ANGELS PARISH

2025

ANNUAL REPORT

FROM THE PASTOR

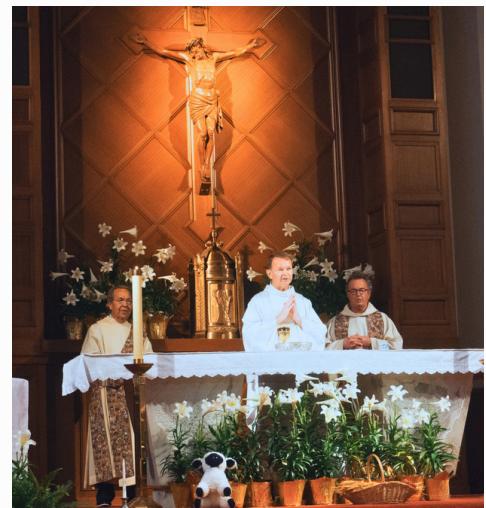

Dear Parishioners:

As we prepare the fiscal year report, we are deeply moved by how you—our parishioners—have remained a loyal, mutually supportive parish family through the many hills and valleys of the years. Most recently, the Eaton wildfire and the loss of so many homes in Altadena tested us all; responding was not easy, and it required great effort, compassion, and creativity from our community. Because of your steadfast support, Holy Angels was able to meet urgent needs in new and meaningful ways, and the people of Altadena expressed heartfelt appreciation for the help they received. That same spirit of care drew many new families to our parish.

The recent Archdiocesan-wide "Called to Renew" campaign, too, has shown the extraordinary loyalty of our people. Our success with this has been beyond all expectation, as you have been hearing. All this will help us to be able to maintain and sustain the aging parish plant through necessary projects.

We thank you for continuing your outstanding generosity. Holy Angels is YOU! The parish family depends on the support of all its members, a sense of belonging, and a commitment to one another. Thank you for being the Holy Angels you have always been to one another.

Blessings,
Fr. Kevin

Faith Formation

Because of your time, teaching, and witness, we celebrated 106 Baptisms, 53 First Communions, 58 Confirmations, and 9 Marriages. We have 251 students in our school and 183 participants in our faith formation program. These sacraments and formation efforts are signs of new life and a parish family rooted in prayer, catechesis, and mutual care.

Disaster Relief and Outreach

With the Archdiocese help and your donations, we collected: $1.5M in relief funds, wildfire relief checks to approximately 1,500 people impacted by the Eaton Fire, and rental assistance for 32 households. Your generosity brought immediate relief and renewed hope to neighbors in crisis.

Thank you for praying, serving, and for your financial support so that Holy Angels can both deepen faith and stand with those in need. Your commitment keeps our parish thriving — may we continue to grow together in mercy and love.
