Over the last several years St. Paul parishioners have been extremely supportive of the Westside Cares Christmas Adopt-a-Family project and your efforts have been very much appreciated!

Westside Cares works directly with 16 west side elementary schools and families identified by the school counselors as needing assistance. Those school families are matched up with a families from our parish in hopes of making their Christmas a little brighter and possible providing a little magic during this holy season. If you would like more information, or would like to adopt a family, please contact Deb or Debra.Mitguard@westsidecares.org by today! Thank you so much for your generosity.

Our Praying Prodigals Home Prayer Group will meet this Sunday, November 21st in Conference Room C between at 9am. Come experience the power of group prayer! Click here for additional details.
