!Helping Children Learn Important Catholic Prayers: The Hail Mary

We know that children most often learn prayers by watching and copying their parents, siblings, relatives and others in church, but we are often asked just how to teach traditional Catholic prayers that are used frequently like the Sign of the Cross, the Hail Mary, and the Our Father.

One thing that makes this difficult is thinking about the whole task, but, in reality, most people who accomplish things do so because they move forward slowly and steadily. Repetition is all-important when teaching children and others as well. "Day by day", and "A little at a time", are good mottoes. The child who is taught something ten minutes a day for eight days will retain the knowledge far better than one taught forty minutes a day for two days.

!During this month you may want to experiment. If your child is old enough, see whether you can !teach him/her the Hail Mary Prayer by saying the first line with him/her every day for 4 days. "Hail !Mary, Full of grace,".

For the next 6 days say the first two lines. For the following 6 days say the first three lines. For the 6 days after that say the four lines. For the next 6 days say the five lines. Then add the last line to the first five for about 8 days.

- ; 1. Hail Mary, Full of Grace,
- 2. The Lord is with thee.
- i3. Blessed art thou among women,
- i 4. And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
- 5. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners
- 6. Now, and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Remember that all children learn at their own pace and you might have to add days or divide some of the lines into smaller phrases, but in approximately five to six weeks, you should have finished, or at least gotten a good start. When you've finished your child will know this wonderful prayer to Mary that you and your family can pray together every day. You will have actually accomplished one great deed: Helping your child to link his/her life to God/Jesus and to his Blessed Mother. You will now be ready to start on another prayer....

(NOTE: If you are a godparent, grandparent, family member or friend of a young child, you can use the same techniques. It will just take longer since you will probably not have daily contact with the child that you are teaching.)

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD: Until we have more Adult Volunteers and more children at Mass we are going to discontinue doing Children's Liturgy of the Word on Sundays at the 9:00 AM Mass. We currently have several adults who will work with children on some Sundays in the future, but none are available to do so at this time. In addition, we must follow the Archdiocesan Child Abuse Prevention (Safeguarding) rules. This means that we need at least a small group of children in a classroom with one adult. We are hoping that we will have enough adult volunteers and more interested children/parents very soon so we are able to begin Children's Liturgy once again. Please let us know if you have questions or suggestions, or if you are interesting in volunteering to assist in some way.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION UPDATE GRADES 7 - 12:

Yesterday, the 49th Annual National March for Life occurred in Washington D.C., as our country continues to pray and fast and fight for an end to abortion and its damaging effects on women, men and families. Many years ago, a diminutive women dressed in her characteristic white sari with blue borders, spoke at the 1994 National Prayer breakfast. That woman was St. Mother Teresa, founder of the Missionaries of Charity and recipient of the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize. She asserted that we "shouldn't be surprised by violence in our streets, when we allow violence in the womb." She asked for an end to abortion, because "all children are precious to God." Perhaps, we can be present day Mother Teresa's and work to make a difference wherever we are to "do something beautiful for God" that will outlive our lives because of our courage and desire to help someone. None of us can help everyone, but all of us can help someone. And when we help them, we serve Jesus. In fact, our second reading today from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians (1Cor12:12-30) reminds us that "we are many parts, but all one body." So during our RE year, we continue to grow in the love and knowledge of Jesus and His extravagant love for each one of us. Our Word of the Week at our January 19 class was "kerygma", which is Greek that means "to proclaim boldly, as in the Gospel." We challenge each other to make good choices and to be bold and courageous in living out our Catholic faith by our convictions and deeds and, if necessary, with words! As Catholics, we are pro-life and pro-eternal life! See you at Mass!

Dear Padre,

I work hard all week and look forward to sleeping in on Sundays. Why should I get out of bed and go to Mass?

imagine that your parish provides suitable Mass times, even for late sleepers. But there are overpowering reasons for attending Mass. First, I'll discuss how the Mass is our present-day connection with the Last Supper, the Passover meal Jesus celebrated with his apostles. As observant Jews, they commemorated their ancestors' escape from slavery in Egypt. Jesus used his final Passover meal to teach us how to escape a bondage crueler than the Jews experienced in Egypt—the enslavement of sin.

The next day, Good Friday, Jesus would die on the cross. Think of it: Jesus, the second person of the Trinity, became human to teach us about God's love for us. The people's reaction to this goodness was to kill Jesus in an inhuman way.

In response, God would have been justified in destroying the world, as he did in reaction to the people's depravities during Noah's time. Instead, God gave us further evidence of his patience and forgiveness. There is nothing our Father would not forgive, including the sin of killing Jesus. At the Last Supper, Jesus said: "This is my blood..., which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins" (Matthew 26:28).

Jesus' death, which we remember during the Mass, liberates us from sin. It also liberates us from death itself. Because Jesus in his mortal body was willing to die, he shows us the plan God the Father has for each of us—a resurrection like Jesus'. The Eucharist is our thanksgiving for these gifts from God.

Fr. Gary Lauenstein, CSsR / Sundaybulletin@Liguori.org

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

We go to Mass because we are sinners and we want to receive God's pardon, to participate in the redemption of Jesus, in his forgiveness. The confession which we make at the beginning is not pro forma. It is a real act of repentance! I am a sinner and I confess it—this is how the Mass begins! GENERAL AUDIENCE, FEBRUARY 12, 2014
