Summer: Light and Bright....

There is no doubt we love light, especially in the summertime. What if, during this summer, as we savor longer hours of sunshine and many light-filled activities, we also concentrated on enjoying more of the SONshine? What if we made our sunny days faith-filled as well as fun-filled? Try these ideas by author Erin O'Leary:

1. Enjoy the Word: Consider the Bible passage from Ephesians 5:8-9: "For you were once in darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of the light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth." Think about what that means as you go about summer activities. Make goodness and truth concrete daily goals. Remember that in Scripture light symbolizes God's presence and holiness. Look for God's presence in the activities of each day and talk about them each night. Search out other Bible verses about light and think about them too!
2. Enjoy the Water: Think and talk about the importance of Baptism, the waters of new life and the light of Christ that is shared. Go swimming, do water activities, or do water-related chores and make the connection to Christ as the "living water" who saves us. God refreshes our souls.
3. Enjoy the Time: Summer gives us more light and usually more outdoor time together. Plan a once-a-week outdoor meal without technology and spend time talking or thinking about life, faith and family. Begin with a prayer. Use a few hours of summer's extra time to bring light and love to others by helping someone who is lonely or ill and needs yard work, gardening, a grocery pickup, a visit or a prayer.
4. Enjoy the Travel: If you take day trips or vacations, plan to stop at one or more faith-filled locations. Find a church of interest, a local shrine, outdoor Stations of the Cross or a museum with religious art, or, take a "Light of God" walk, at home or away, and look for all the things that remind you of God's love and creation. Take pictures as a reminder that faith is part of fun.
5. Enjoy the Events: Summer is a time of special events like reunions, parades, fairs, ball games and concerts. If you plan to attend an event, say a short prayer for its success before you go. When you return, make a list of the blessings you received!

Make this the summer you remember that Jesus told us he is the "light of the world" (Jn 8:12) and that by following him we can and will have the light of life!
