During November, parishioners can memorialize loved ones in the Book of the Departed. The book is located on the ambo near Mary.

Thank you all for praying for your spiritual adopted babies, they now will reach their first trimester at the end of November. They have really grown and can suck their thumb, sleep and awaken, have developed their unique set of fingerprints and are sensitive to touch. They will tightly grasp an object if place in the palm of their hand. They can squint, swallow and move their tongue. Please continue, along with our students to pray for them.

This Advent season, Fr. Joe is inviting families to participate in lighting the Advent candles during our weekend Masses. A sign-up sheet will be available on the table in the front vestibule. Thank you, and may this season of waiting and hope be a blessing to you and your families
