Through the collective efforts of the committee, volunteers, and supporters, the gala successfully netted $16,032.36. This achievement reflects not only the generosity of the community but also the commitment and teamwork of everyone involved. The event was a wonderful celebration and a true testament to what can be accomplished together. Congratulations on a job well done!

Father Joe's desire to reintroduce the Precious Blood to our Eucharistic Celebration is moving forward. We are grateful to have four of the faithful step forward to serve as Eucharistic Ministers. However, in order to fully implement this sacred aspect of our worship, we need two additional parishioners to serve. If you are a confirmed Catholic, at least 18 years old, and feel called to this vital ministry, please contact Adriana Haas -ahaas@stedwardky.org.

Faith the size of a mustard seed is powerful when it is focused correctly. As Scripture says, "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen" (see Heb 11:1). When faith keeps God as its Object, nothing is impossible (even serial forgiveness!).
