

Update from Fr. Eric:

1. Beginning on Wednesday March 18th you will be able to watch my morning Mass from the transfiguration webpage. I will be praying the rosary at 7:30am followed by morning prayer and concluding with Mass. As a reminder there is NO public celebration of Mass, therefore the doors of the church will be unlocked at 9am upon completion of Mass. The doors will be locked at 5pm each night.

here is a link to the live streaming (you can also watch later as they will be archived.):

<https://www.transfigurationcatholicchurch.org/streamspot>

2. Our churches will be open for private prayer. A reminder that there are to be NO MORE than 10 people in the church at a time. Please space yourselves out. Also, please be sure and use the hand sanitizer on your way in and upon your exit.
 - a. St. Patrick will be open beginning at 7am and closing at 5pm, Monday through Friday.
 - b. Transfiguration will be open beginning at 9am and closing at 5pm Monday through Saturday.
3. Confession will be available by appointment. You may contact either myself for Fr. Michael to arrange a time. Please contact us by our email
 - a. Fr. Michael: ap@tchurch.org
 - b. Fr. Eric: pastor@tchurch.org

Please check our parish websites for any updates, opportunities to help your neighbor and for items to assist us in our ongoing formation as disciples of Christ.