Sign of the Cross

The Apostles' Creed

Leader: I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

} Bow

Participants: I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

The Our Father

Leader: Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Participants: Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Leader: Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

now and at the hour of our death. Amen

world without end. Amen.

O My Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who are in most need of Thy mercy.

REFLECTION

In today's gospel for this first Sunday of Advent (Luke 21:25-28; 34-36), Jesus is once again referring to his Second Coming. For his first coming into the world, the world did not know it was he or even what to expect. The people of his second coming have no such excuse. As we remember Jesus' first coming this Advent season, let us approach Eucharist ever more humbly and committed to change – he taught us the way.

The Hail Holy Queen

Leader: Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To you do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn then, most gracious advocate
your eyes of mercy towards us;
and after this our exile,

show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Leader: Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

Participants: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Leader: Let us pray.

Participants: O God whose only Begotten Son by his life, death and resurrection
Has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life
Grant we beseech thee, that while meditating on these mysteries
Of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
