Mass Attire: Visual presentation is extremely important for the professionalism and initial impression of the students; therefore we ask that you please contain your options to Black, white, and gray. Black pants/ white shirt, black skirt /white shirt, dress shoes.

No jeans, No sneakers. No ripped, torn, clothes with holes.

Retreat Attire: Students are allowed to bring a change of clothing that they will be comfortable in, as they will be sitting for most of the retreat.

Please change during the coffee/bagel hour and BEFORE the retreat begins.

Cell phones must be turned off and will be collected at start of retreat.

Lunch: Pizza, drink and snack.

Please notify us of any allergies to foods.

Students may bring a PLASTIC water/drink bottle, name marked on it for use during retreat

The only extra money needed, is if students wish to purchase items

There will be an opportunity for students to purchase handmade “Rosary string bracelets” from children in Bolivia, for a nominal fee. $2.00-$6.00.

Books and CDs are also available at a different rate.

Donations are welcome and needed. They are also tax deductible.

Hope for the Children is a recognized 501c-3 charity, an official tax-exempt nonprofit organization.

At “Hope for the Children” every cent you donate goes directly to help those in need.

Retreat

What did I think a Confirmation retreat would be like? What we would do, say, discuss...

After attending the retreat, I learned:

One thing I liked about the Retreat: (not lunch!)

One thing I will take away from the retreat is:

One thing, (other than the length of the retreat) that I did not like was:

This is feedback for us to know if this certain retreat is still relevant enough to offer to the next years Confirmation candidates.

Your opinion matters! If there was anything that you still would like to discuss after the retreat, please do not hesitate to ask one of the adults that were present.
