Most Holy Trinity A June 7, 2020

WE ARE SHELTERED BY GOD’S INDWELLING PRESENCE. The solemnity of the Most Blessed Trinity is one among three principal feasts that follow the Easter season – the rest being, Corpus Christi or the Body of Christ (next Sunday) and Sacred Heart of Jesus (Friday after Corpus Christi). Other minor feasts like the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and the recently added Mary, Mother of the Church have intrinsic connection with the Resurrection event and the glory that awaits the bride of Christ, the Church, who is mirrored in the Blessed Virgin Mary.

IT IS SAFE TO RETURN TO MASS. Thank you for your continued cooperation as we adjust to the “new normal” occasioned by the virus outbreak. Kindly continue to observe the mitigation strategies adopted, for as long as they last. For those worried about catching the virus during Mass, we want to assure you that the safety measures are working and urge you to return to Mass. Only the Lord can sufficiently watch over our lives and keep us safe.

FR. DYE’S MOVE. The recent location of priests announced by the diocese has Fr. Robert Dye transferred to Muskogee as associate pastor. We will have (maybe virtual) reception for him before he leaves at the end of June.

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT. St. John’s parish has been blessed with your remarkable support during the pandemic. Our new Online-Giving program called WeShare is a veritable instrument to make your offertory donations. Visit our website or Facebook page to learn how you can safely and conveniently make a one-time or recurring contribution online. Please, let us know if you need help with signing on, and we will walk you through it. To give online, kindly visit: <https://stjohn-mcalester.weshareonline.org/>

LOGO & WEBSITE. We plan to launch our new website and a logo next week. We are also redesigning our bulletin with support from LPi. To ensure the continued success of these endeavors, we will be approaching you in no distant time to support these efforts through advertisements (of your business or interests) in the new bulletin.
