Second Sunday of Easter A April 19, 2020

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY. The Second Sunday of Easter is also called Divine Mercy Sunday. We will conclude the Mass Sunday by praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy – begging God to have mercy on us and the world, and release us from the scourge of the Coronavirus. Join our streaming of Mass and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

COVID-19 CANCELLATIONS: Faced with the continued cancelation of public Masses till the end of the April, we enjoin all Catholics to intensify prayers with the Holy Father and the entire Church for its end. Join us for the livestreaming of Sunday Masses on Facebook during this Easter season. Should you desire to receive the Eucharist or any other spiritual help, kindly call for that. Make your daily Spiritual Communion using the printout mailed to you. The prayer is also provided online, and printouts are at the entrances of the Church.

CHURCH SUPPORT: We are glad to announce the launch of our Online-Giving platform called WeShare. Visit our website and Facebook page to learn how you can safely and conveniently make a one-time or recurring offertory contribution online. We appreciate the effort by many parishioners to continue supporting the parish, notwithstanding the financial struggles posed by the virus outbreak. Our Church Contribution Summary shows a significant decrease in the collection. We encourage you to continue to support the parish in paying our bills, if you can. To give online, just visit: <https://stjohn-mcalester.weshareonline.org/>

We are partnering with the publishing company LPi for our recently launched online-giving platform. LPi will also print our bulletin, host our website, and build a logo for the parish. You can support us through advertisements (of your business or particular interests) in the bulletin. The bulletin will be launched in the next few months.

The requested item of the week for the St. Jude's Center of Catholic Charities is canned vegetables. St. Jude's is also in need of volunteers to help with aid distribution. Please call Amelia London at 918-424-8833 to volunteer.
