THE WASHING OF FEET

This evening, Fr. Bob and Deacon Bob Hornacek will wash the feet of any member of our community who wishes to come forward. In this way they serve our parish community as our humble leaders. Please join in singing the refrain below.

Refrain

I, your Lord and Mas-ter, now be-come your ser-vant.

I who made the moon and stars will kneel to wash your feet.

This is my com-mand-ment: to love as I have loved you.

Kneel to wash each oth-er's feet as I have done for you.

Celebration of Our Lord's Passion Good Friday

This is the celebration of the Lord's passion. To celebrate is to express a common meaning which binds a community together. Celebration need not mean extravagant partying. Today it is the deadly serious proclamation of Christians who hold above their heads the trophy of a victory bought at the price of one man's blood. This cross is his and our path to glory. That cross, in the vision of John's gospel, is a sign of glory.

GATHERING RITE

Procession with the Holy Cross

Song: Blessed Redeemer

from Until The Whole World Hears by Casting Crowns

Up Calvary's mountain one dreadful morn
Walked Christ my Savior, weary and worn
Facing for sinners death on the cross
That He might save them from endless loss

Blessed Redeemer, precious Redeemer
Seems now I see Him on Calvary's tree
Wounded and bleeding, for sinners pleading
Blind and unheeding, dying for me

Father, forgive them,' my Savior prayed
Even while His lifeblood flowed fast away
Praying for sinners while in such woe
No one but Jesus ever loved so

Oh how I love Him, Savior and friend
How can my praises ever find end
Through the years unnumbered on Heaven's shore
My songs shall praise Him forevermore.

THE GREAT EASTER VIGIL

Holy Saturday

Holy Saturday is the queen of all liturgies. The Church outdoes itself to-night. This is what it's all about. This is what we celebrate in one way or another all year long. We light the new fire, proclaiming Jesus to be our light and our life. We hear the readings that tell the primal stories of who God is and who we are. Even before that, we hear the Exsultet, proclaiming the night of nights when Jesus rose. We bless the waters of baptism through which new members are initiated into the Church. Along with these new members, we celebrate the renewal of old members, insuring a Church alive and ever-new. Finally, the Eucharist celebrates our coming together to nourish ourselves at the font of all life—the Lord's table.

Jesus Christ is ris'n today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss, Alleluia!

Unto Christ, our heav'nly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save, Alleluia!

Praise him, now his might confess, Alleluia!
