Where did the Magi go after visiting the baby Jesus?

Philip Kosloski - published on 01/11/26

After the events of the Epiphany, the Bible gives some details, while tradition tries to fill in the blanks.

The Bible provides some details as to where the Magi traveled after paying homage to the Christ Child:

Going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way. ~ Matthew 2:11-12

All we know definitively is that they left Bethlehem or Nazareth, according to some traditions and returned to their country.

Where would that have been?

What tradition says

Outside of the Bible, there are many different stories, but some that have become the main narrative of where the Magi left.

Fr. Dwight Longenecker explains in an article for Aletheia the most common belief when it comes to the location of the Magi's "country":

The story is told in 14th-century John of Hildesheim's Historia Trium Regum or "The History of the Three Kings." John says Balthasar, Melchior, and Caspar were from India, Persia and Chaldea (present-day Iran and Iraq). They set off separately, met at the birthplace in Jerusalem and then journeyed together to Bethlehem. After worshiping Christ, they returned together to India, where they built a church, and after another vision that revealed that their earthly life was about to end, they died at the same time and were buried in their church in India.

Baptized by an Apostle?

There is even a story that they may have been baptized by St. Thomas the Apostle.

As the years passed they reportedly heard of a disciple of Jesus preaching in India. It was St. Thomas and they went in haste to find him. After relating to St. Thomas the story of their visit to the baby Jesus, Thomas related to them the Gospel message.

The apostle then baptized the three wise men and later ordained them priests and bishops. They lived together in a city called Suwella and later died before Christmas one year.

It's believed that later St. Helena (the mother of Constantine) visited India and recovered the relics of the Magi, initially bringing them back to Constantinople. Eventually their relics were transferred to Cologne, Germany, through a series of events.

What's certain is that the Magi were spiritually changed after their encounter and that wherever their country was, they returned with joyful hearts.

FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I have struggled when doing work that feels unseen. Has anyone noticed that the floors were mopped today? Do my students care about the feedback I provide on their writing? Does my supervisor notice the extra time I put into my work? In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist announcing Jesus as "the Lamb of God." John has been preparing for the coming of Christ and now that Jesus has arrived, his role is to step aside and encourage his followers to move their gaze toward Christ, the Messiah. Although we know John's name and his faithfulness, it would have been easy for him to assume that his work would have been forgotten — overshadowed by the signs and wonders of Christ himself. But in his humility, this is exactly what John seemingly wanted. His life and words were focused solely on proclaiming the coming of Christ. While I may have been tempted to say, "Please don't forget about what I did," John responded faithfully to God's call to preach and prepare for Christ's coming, without worry of receiving credit for his actions. And in our lives, too, what matters is not whether our work is appreciated or noticed, but whether our actions are in response to God's call to holiness.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Despite not knowing whether his work would extend for years or decades, John the Baptist continued to lead others toward repentance. He did not know the full scope of his role in the plan of salvation, but he trusted in the voice of God. Like John, we are called to persevere in faithfulness to the work that God has called us to do, right where we are. When we persevere in our faith, living according to the teachings of Christ and our vocation, we give witness to the truth that the God who called us is worthy of our trust.

WITNESS

Consider the countless men and women who have gone before us who remained faithful to God's call. Their lives bear witness to their trust in God, in big and in small ways, sometimes visible, but often hidden. What simple acts of faithfulness are you being called to persevere in today? Recommit to practicing faithfulness in the big — as well as mundane — aspects of daily living.

Pray for the Unborn

Virgin of Guadalupe,
Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. Help expectant parents to welcome from God the priceless gift of their child's life.

Console parents who have lost that gift through abortion, and lead them to forgiveness and healing through the Divine Mercy of your Son.

Teach us to cherish and to care for family and friends until God calls them home. Help us to never see others as burdens.

Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws.

Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice.

We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself.

Amen

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Play That One Again

How many times have you sung the church song, "Here I Am, Lord"? If you grew up Catholic and are around my age (still 50!), the answer is more than you can count. The song that quotes various verses of Scripture is sung using guitar, piano, or organ, by cantors and choirs, in traditional and modern churches. It is truly a Catholic greatest hit of the modern Church. The question is how many times when singing the refrain have you really taken to heart what you were singing.

"Here I am, Lord; is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night." Like the biblical figure Samuel, we are responding to the call of God by asking for clarification that we are indeed the one being called. We then follow up the question with a profound statement: "I will go if You lead me." It is profound because we are pledging to our God that we are willing to go wherever He wants. We are accepting the challenge put forth in the U.S. Bishops' pastoral letter, "Stewardship: A Disciple's Response," to become mature disciples who respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We have sung this pledge repeatedly for many years.

We never have any idea what God will call us to do and where to go. Sometimes the request can ask us for quite a lot. Hopefully, we respond like a mature disciple. If not, maybe we should reflect more the next time this song is played. The melody will not allow for the words, "I will see if I am busy and then decide to go if you lead me." Then again, I don't want to sing that to God, the source of all life anyway. Do you?

SCAN ME

God calls us to be poor in spirit, merciful in heart, and above all, peacemakers. "Blessed are the peacemakers," Our Lord says, "for they will be called Children of God" (Matthew 5:9).

As we learn more in the coming weeks about the good works sustained by the Catholic Ministry Appeal, I invite you to prayerful discern a generous, joyful, and courageous gift to the 2026 Appeal. Your support is an act of peace and hope, a visible sign of faith that joins, heals, and reminds our community: You are not alone. God is with you.

Your gift brings the Beatitudes to thousands in our communities, some of whom may be sitting next to you at Mass each week. Please pray for your appeal commitment this week and consider how you may support the appeal to the most generous extent you are able.

All parish families will have the opportunity to participate on Commitment Weekend, Feb. 1st.

Thank you and God Bless You!
