

7 Churches TRADITION

HOLY THURSDAY

NIGHT WATCH EXPLAINED

This tradition is credited to St. Philip Neri and his friends who would prayerfully join together and go on a "pilgrimage" to seven churches. It came out of a desire to increase prayer and keep with Christ's request to "remain here, and watch", hence why it is referred to as Night Watch. (Mark 14:34) By keeping this tradition we also become pilgrims staying with Christ in the garden and consoling Him in his agony.
